Completion of Huge Speculation.

Charles A. Munroe and his four associates, who in 1924 purchased control of the Laclede Gas Light Co., today sold that control to the Utilities Power and Light Corporation, a holding company of which L. Clarke of Chicago is president.

Thus Munroe consummates one of the largest and most profitable speculations in the annals of St. Louis. As described in detail in the Post-Dispatch of last May 10—a deal yielding Munroe's group a profit of $7,451,000 and Munroe himself a profit of $4,470,000, all within three years.

Clarke and his Utilities Power and Light Corporation also have purchased an 80 per cent. interest in the St. Louis Coke and Iron Co., which operates blast furnaces and 80 coke ovens at Granite City.

The price paid by Clarke for Laclede Gas is said to be on the order of $230 a share for common stock for which Munroe and his associates paid approximately $105 a share in 1924, and which was on the New York Stock Exchange today at $238.50. Munroe and his four associates owned 59.9 per cent. of the common stock of Laclede Gas Light Co., and 95.1 per cent. of preferred stock. They retained this stock as the chief asset of a holding company which they created, the Laclede Gas and Light Co., and of which they are exclusive owners.

Clarke bought the entire holding company and through it became possessed of a working control of Laclede Gas Light Co., which is the company supplying gas to St. Louis with gas.

The deal was announced in St. Louis by Samuel W. Fordyce Jr., law firm of Fordyce, Hollister & White, upon authority of the long distance telephone from Chicago. Munroe himself declined to say anything for publication. Fordyce said he had no knowledge on the sale of the St. Louis Coke and Iron Corporation.

The deal was financed, Munroe, then a subordinate of public utilities having a valuation of $1,500,000,000, and in 1924 that W. A. Harrison, of New York, had purchased the common stock of Laclede Gas for $11,200,000 himself and his four associates who put up a share for stock that had been sold for $71. They immediately organized the holding company, Laclede Gas & Electric Co., and Clarke now has purchased securities of that company with which he reimbursed Munroe for the cash they put boosting the valuation. Munroe then came to St. Louis and assumed one-man control of the company. His first interest was to have the valuation of the properties for rate-making purposes which had been in progress since Page 2, column 6.

Munroe Swore He Didn't
Buy Laclede to Sell Again

Charles A. Munroe, testifying in the valuation proceedings before the Missouri Public Service Commission at Jefferson City on Feb. 8, 1926, declared repeatedly that he had purchased the Laclede Gas Light Co. with the intention of holding and operating it, and not as a speculative venture. His testimony in part follows:

Q. If a big cleaning is made, the common stock gets all of that?

A. There is no possibility of a big cleaning.

Q. This is really a matter of speculation is it not, Mr. Munroe, on the part of yourself and your associates? You haven't bought in there in the sense of making a permanent investment, but just in the way of buying at the lowest figure with the idea then of selling your interest?

A. All my life I have been interested. In all my business life, in the purchase of gas and electric properties. I am still an owner in the first one I ever purchased. I have never sold but one property, and in that I am a stockholder, and this investment in this stock (Laclede) was made for the sole purpose of furnishing an investment. There has been no disposition nor intention to sell this property, but as I feel, sometimes when I hear such testimony that it is only worth $38,700,000 it makes me think I had better sell it and get out, because I am ruined if that is its value. But, with reasonable treatment, I don't want to sell this property. I made the investment with the purpose of keeping it, and so did my associates.

The commission, after conclusion of the hearings, allowed a valuation of $52,000,000.

L. G. OLIAN FINED
OF FEDERAL TAX

Head of Waist and Dress Company Admits He Entered Into Conspiracy to Defraud Government.

CHARGE BASED ON INCOME OF FIRM

E. C. Ellman, 69, Accountant, Pleads Nolo Contendere and Is Penalized $1000.

Louis G. Olian of 6226 Rosebury drive, president of the Olian Waist and Express Co., 1105 Washington avenue, was fined $1500 by Federal Judge Davis today when he pleaded guilty of conspiracy to defraud the Government of income tax due from his company during 1926, 1927, 1928 and 1929.

His gray-haired 69-year-old accountant, Ernest C. Ellman, jointly charged, was fined $1000 on a nolo contendere plea under which he maintained he obeyed Olian's orders in preparing tax returns without intention of violating the law.

Last December Olian pleaded guilty of attempted evasion of income tax for the same years, paid a $600 fine and settled with the Collector of Internal Revenue for $81,200, representing delinquent taxes estimated at $50,000, plus interest and penalties. The payment was for himself as an individual and for the waist and dress company which he owns, and included evasions aggregating $20,000 on which the conspiracy charge was based.

Government's View of Case. Assistant Attorney-General Deliber, sent here from Washington to prosecute the conspiracy case, today asked for an "appropriate sentence," and described the case as "one of the most flagrant of the Internal Revenue Department has had to deal with."

"It was a deliberate scheme to defraud the Government over a period of years," he declared, "and a far more serious crime than when one individual cheats another or on business cheats another. By defrauding the Government, a man defrauds every honest taxpayer who must bear the burden of his dishonesty."

Olian's lawyer, Charles A. Houts, argued that the conspiracy charges were based on the same state of facts as the previous charges on which Olian was fined, and asked for a light sentence inasmuch as Olian had admitted his promise to the Internal Revenue Bureau to pay the taxes and penalties and pleaded guilty. Ellman's attorney, A. M. Frumberg, explained that his client admitted no guilt but threw himself on the mercy of the court because he was in ill health and feared the physical and nervous consequences of a trial.

Frumberg contended that Ellman's duty was to prepare income tax returns from statements furnished by the company's bookkeeper and exhibited documents which he said proved that Ellman was furnished the information which was furnished him. Houts declared that Ellman was innocent of wrongdoing.

Judge Davis imposed the fines without comment and ordered Olian and Ellman to remain in Marshall's custody pending payment.

Deliber declared the fraud was perpetuated by removing accounts receivable sheets from the company's ledger, collecting the accounts without showing them on the books, padding the payroll with fictitious names, and charging Olian's personal bills to the company as "expense." He recited that in 1926 the company reported net income of only $256, whereas there was tax due of $12,169.93; in 1927, it reported a loss of $29,705, whereas net income was $9964; in 1928, net loss of $17,697.09, whereas net income was $21,817.71; and in 1929, net loss of about $3000, whereas net income was $32,939.21.

SHOOTS FIANCEE AND HIMSELF ON WEDDING DAY

Mrs. Frieda Hoffman and Henry Saller in Hospital On the Morning Set for Their Marriage.

WOMAN SAYS FIRST SHOT WAS ACCIDENT

Chided for Going to Party, Fiancee Repulsed Roomer—Thought He'd Killed Her and Sought Death.

This was to be their wedding day, but Henry Saller and Mrs. Frieda Hoffman are at City Hospital, he with a serious bullet wound in the chest and she with a bullet wound in the right thigh. They quarreled, and he shot her and himself.

Saller, an agent for a pickle company, lives at 1909A Lynch street, but rents exhibition space for his pickles at the rooming house of Mrs. Hoffman at 821 South Sixth street. He is 38 years old; she is 25 and a widow.

Last week they went to city hall and obtained a marriage license. Last night Mrs. Hoffman went to a party. Left alone with his pistol, Saller fretted until past midnight, then sped toward her in his little coupe and brought her home.

Chided, She Changed Mind. "It's not right that you should stand out late the night before we're married," he told her. "We're not married yet," she reminded him.

The quarrel continued as they put the car away and entered her kitchen at 2 a. m. He was playing with a revolver, which he carries for holdup men.

"You're too hot-headed," Mrs. Hoffman told him finally. "I won't marry you. You can test up that old license as far as I'm concerned. Put that thing away and get out."

Double Shooting Follows. Then the revolver was discharged. Mrs. Hoffman, wounded, fell to the floor in a faint. When she revived, Saller was kneeling beside her, bathing her brow and imploring her not to die.

Then he collapsed. Fearing he had killed her, he had shot himself.

At the hospital, Saller spoke incoherently of the shooting, and admitted he had been drinking. Mrs. Hoffman said Saller's shooting of her was accidental.

ILLINOIS HOUSE FOR REPEAL OF ALL STATE DRY LAWS

Vote 80 to 63 on Proposal to Annul Prohibition Enforcing Statutes.

By the Associated Press. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 18.—The House of Representatives today voted 80 to 63 to repeal all the State laws enforcing the prohibition against the sale of liquor.

When the Weber-O'Grady Bill came up, two hours were spent in arguing it. Representative O'Grady characterized prohibition enforcement as a joke and pointed to the financial depression as an additional reason for doing away with dry laws.

"If the so-called dry members of this house will vote as they drink," O'Grady declared, "this bill will get a 90 per cent. vote from the House."

Scathing criticism of Federal enforcement was voiced by Representative Truman A. Snell, Carlinville. "Federal enforcement of prohibition," he said, "has made more money out of prohibition than they ever did out of anything else."

NEGRO, ALLEGED ROBBER, KILLED RESISTING ARREST

Henry Hunter, Shot by Detective Bauer, Dies of Wound at Hospital.

A Negro identified as Henry Hunter, was shot and killed in the rear of 2123 Walnut street at 2 o'clock this afternoon by a city detective who sought to arrest him for an alleged holdup.

Clark Cooper, a Negro, told Detectives Walter Bauer and Charles Hunter that an acquaintance had taken a small sum of money from him and they walked about the neighborhood with him, until Cooper pointed out Hunter as a alleged robber.

As Hunter started backing into a shed, Bauer ordered him to surrender, but the detective reported, Hunter started to draw a revolver, whereupon Bauer fired one shot from his revolver, which penetrated Hunter's abdomen, causing death a few minutes later at City Hospital No. 2. Cooper supplied Hunter's name.

Bauer's shot, leaving Hunter's body, went through a shed and struck Earl Hill, a Negro, in the right leg.

33 KILLED AS MAD
FARMER DYNAMITES
BATH, MICH., SCHOOLSome Effects of a $100,000,000
Valuation of United Railways

THE POST-DISPATCH has reported in full the reorganization of the bankrupt United Railways by J. K. Newman, of New York, and a group of St. Louis bankers and financiers headed by Frank O. Watts, president of the First National Bank, A. L. Shapleigh and J. Sheppard Smith, who will control the new company through ownership of a dominating block of its common stock, and who stand to make millions through the transaction.

Counsel for the reorganizers, in a recent public address to investment bankers, which was reported in the Post-Dispatch, told the bankers that on a $60,000,000 valuation the common stock of the new company would have an equity in property value of $12,000,000. On that basis each share would have an equity of $34.00.

Since all additions to valuation would go to common stock, the same stock on a $100,000,000 valuation would have an equity of $52,000,000, or $146 per share.

This stock was issued at $12.50 a share. The St. Louis group, including Newman, hold 150,000 shares of common stock which, at the issue price, aggregate $1,875,000. The property equity of the group's holding of common, on a $100,000,000 valuation, would jump to $21,900,000.

The capitalization of the new company as at present set up, that is, the total face value of all the outstanding securities, is $50,481,000. The valuation of $100,000,000 would nearly double the equity in property of these securities. The railways are asking for an 8 per cent return (above all operating expenses) on whatever valuation they may finally accept. An 8 per cent return on $100,000,000 would be $8,000,000. The annual charges against all the securities of the new company are only $2,203,915. The difference between the return of $8,000,000 and these charges, or $5,796,000, would be available for annual dividends on the common stock. Such a dividend would be at the rate of about $16 per share on stock issued at $12.50 a share, or 135 per cent.

In the similar case of the Laclede Gas Co., which Charles A. Munroe of Chicago bought three years ago and sold out today, an increase in the valuation of the property to $52,000,000 by the Public Service Commission set the common stock, for which Munroe paid $105 a share, to 241.5-8 a share on the New York Stock Exchange today. It closed at 238 1-2.

Crazed Andrew Kehoe Blown Up Setting Off Charge as Superintendent Tried to Stop Him.

BLAST SET OFF WITH RIFLE SHOT

Most Victims Are Little Children—Total Casualties Unknown—Workers Still Dig in Ruins.

By the Associated Press. BATH, Mich., May 18.—Two explosions believed to have been caused by dynamite which wrecked the north wing of a consolidated district school, here this morning, killed at least 35 children, the principal, E. E. Huyck, one teacher and two bystanders, according to the estimate of State police and members of the Lansing fire department who are taking bodies in the wreckage.

Thirty-three bodies had been recovered up to 2:30 p. m. About 90 children were in the part of the building that was destroyed.

Miss Hazel Weatherbe, a teacher in charge of the third grade, and Nelson McFarlan who were passing the building were among those killed. Bodies were placed in a temporary morgue in the school yard while ambulances carried the injured to Lansing.

A short time before the explosions wrecked the school house, the farm home and barn of Andrew Kehoe nearby were blown up and destroyed by fire. The body of Kehoe, who was treasurer of the school district and who recently suffered financial reverses, was found in front of the school building.

Sticks of dynamite were found near the school house and on the Kehoe farm by State police.

Say Kehoe Set Off Charge. Investigation disclosed that the cellar of the building was wired and contained more than 500 pounds of dynamite.

The investigation also developed, the State police said, that Kehoe, who was killed in the explosion, had touched off the charge by firing a high powered rifle into a box of explosive in the rear seat of his automobile.

Kehoe, the officers said, apparently had worked during the night stacking the dynamite in the building and wiring the charges. Shortly after the school sessions started he was seen driving up in front of the school.

He then strung a wire, the officers said, from the basement of the building to the engine of his car. His fuses had been crudely manufactured from rifle shells, several of which were found near the shattered automobile.

Principal Tried to Stop Him.

Witnesses declared the principal ran out from the school building apparently to attack Kehoe, who then turned and fired his rifle into the box on the rear seat, exploding the dynamite. The second explosion wrecked the north end of the school house, burying children and teachers under tons of debris.

The dynamite was so widely distributed about the cellar that all of it failed to explode.

State police were busy this afternoon removing dynamite which endangered the lives of bystanders and workers.

W. G. Conklin, Bath Deputy Sheriff, was quoted as saying that Kehoe recently had appeared manically unbalanced because of a mortgage falling due which would have taken his farm from him. Neighbors of the farmer quoted him as saying that the school taxes were so high he could not make payments on the mortgage.

Kehoe's wife has been in a hospital for several months.

The noise of the explosion was heard in all parts of the village of 300, and horror-stricken parents began a rush to the building almost immediately.

Frantic mothers attempted to push their way into the ruins of the school.

THREE ARRESTED IN $4200
"MONEY MACHINE" FRAUD

Police investigation of a complaint of Harry Zimmermann of 1924 Forest avenue, a miller, that he had lost $4200 in an ancient form of "money machine" swindle, on May 12. One of the prisoners, who said he was Max Shapiro, a junk dealer, of 3210 Kensington avenue, is described by the police as an ex-convict.

Zimmermann said he had known Shapiro 12 years and declared Shapiro told him early this month that Nathan Simon of Boston, a cousin of Shapiro, was coming here with a money-making machine stolen from Washington. On May 12 Shapiro and Simon took Zimmermann to a Morgan street room where they pretended to convert two $1 bills into twenties, and substituted real $20 bills, as proved by stamp purchases made with them at the postoffice.

Zimmermann said he went home and got his $4200, at his companions' suggestion, and took it to them in a room at Hotel Claridge. Simon left, but Shapiro, he declared, put his good money in the machine and pretended to manipulate the device with an acid, then wrapped the converted money in a towel, saying it would have to set in that covering for five hours.

Shapiro and Zimmermann went to a theater, the complainant continued, but when they returned Zimmermann asserted all he found in the towel was blank paper with burned edges. He reported the affair to the police the same day, but it was suppressed, pending arrest.

'COST NEW' THEORY
URGED BY U. R.
FOR 8-CENT FARE

Testimony in Case Centers Around Valuation Claim of $100,000,000 Less Depreciation.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch. JEFFERSON CITY, May 18.—The array of legal counsel and experts here for the United Railways of St. Louis, in its increased fare and revaluation proceeding before the State Public Service Commission today resumed the task of building up the contention of property value centering around a maximum claim of approximately $100,000,000, on the basis of reproduction net, less depreciation.

The company does not actually expect the commission to allow the maximum claim of approximately $100,000,000, exclusive of non-operating property, as the fair valuation. But it does hope to persuade the commission to give major weight to the theory of reproduction of the property new, at present day costs, less depreciation. Thereby it would add many millions to the valuation upon which the car riders must provide a return.

This, in turn, would give effect to the threat of J. K. Newman, manager for the reorganizers of the railways, that if the car riders did not grant the company a 30-year franchise it would seek in federal courts as high a valuation as the reproduction theory would produce.

Boost in Valuation Figures. In its application to the commission the United Railways outlined its fair valuation, exclusive of non-operating property, as considering all theories "is at least $75,000,000." This is $15,000,000 in excess of what the reorganization committee said it would accept if the City would grant the franchise and about $20,000,000 in excess of the 1919 valuation of $51,731,000 adjusted to the present time by additions and betterments, less depreciation.

Introduction of exhibits and expert testimony in support of the reproduction theory was not completed yesterday, but the "set-up" on the maximum claim will total approximately $100,000,000 for operating property. It was stated, Continued on Page 2, Column 6.

MARCHIONESS' DAUGHTER WEDS

DESPITE PROTESTS OF FAMILY

Pomp and Ceremony Attend Union of Miss Marcella Duggan to Man of Her Choice

LONDON, May 18.—Miss Mar-cella Duggan, 19-year-old daughter of Marchioness Curzon, married the man of her choice today, and married him with great pomp and ceremony at St. Margaret's, Westminster, in spite of the family row she created three months ago by announcing her engagement to Edward D. Rice, young barrister.

Miss Duggan inherited all the independence of her Irish grandfather, who emigrated from Ireland to the Argentine, where he accumulated a fortune in land and cattle, which was passed down to Alfred Duggan, the father of Mar-cella. The Marchioness Curzon was the widow of Alfred Duggan
when she married the late Viscount Curzon. She is a daughter of the late J. Moore Hinds, former United States Minister to Brazil.

FORT BATTLES WITH DESTROYERS IN MIMIC WAR

Umpires Make No Report
On Attack, and Theory
Is Firing Had Little Effect.

SQUADRON SIGHTED OFF LONG ISLAND.

Strange Movements Indicate That Invading Fleet Is Trying to Distract Defenders.

By the Associated Press.

NEWPORT, R. I., May 18.—The first brush of the war game which threatens New England and New York came during the night when the giant guns of Fort Mifflin engaged first line destroyers of the Black Invaders, according to announcement at Blue (defense) headquarters here.

In the absence of any report from the umpires, it was assumed that the fire had little effect.

Report of the engagement reached here through Fort Wright, headquarters of the coast defenses of Long Island Sound as follows: "Fort Mifflin engaged for several minutes at about 11:55 (standard time) against DD fleet (first line destroyers) in Long Island Sound. Vessels displayed no lights. DD's no longer in sight. Am continuing search."

Mifflin is one of the strongest forts guarding the Eastern approach to the sound. Giant disappearing guns and mortars are mounted on concrete platforms. A preliminary report, which cast some doubt on the identity of the vessels, was received from Fort Terry, Plum Island, a few miles away. There eight destroyers followed by four submarines were sighted about the same time north of the fort. They soon disappeared and left observers in doubt whether they were Black (offensive) forces.

A Deviating Movement. The commander of the Blue fleet, which has been searching for the main squadron of the Blacks, sent a radio to the air force commander of the Blues that "much smoke" had been sighted west of Block Island (at the Eastern end of the Sound) and ordered him to investigate. Another report from an in-shore patrol to Fort Wright told of a strange vessel of destroyer type.

These movements were taken to mean that the Black fleet was attempting to distract and confuse the Blue defenders by sending light forces against several points, under cover of which the Blacks hoped to accomplish their objective of landing a theoretical force of 75,000 men to sack the rich industrial section.

Army Begins "Battle of San Antonio" in War Game.

By the Associated Press.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 18.—The "Battle of San Antonio" started this morning as the Blue Army staff moved an imaginary force about maps while the second division took the field to prevent the first and second Red armies from joining along a front north of here. The second Red Army, outlined by wagon trains and cavalry, is seeking to break through the second

MAKES A TEA FOR HEADACHE

Virginia Lady Tells How She Gets Most Beneficial Results in Treatment of Constipation and Indigestion.

The home of Mrs. John L. Pence of Broadway, Va., is one of the thousands of homes in which Black-Draught has been in successful use for the relief of constipation and similar ills requiring a laxative or cathartic.

"Occasionally," says Mrs. Pence, "I am troubled with spells of constipation. I always use Black-Draught when I feel a spell of this kind coming on, for it saves me a bad headache."

"My color gets sallow at times. I get real yellow. I have found Black-Draught to be the finest kind of a remedy for this. I take Black-Draught and make a tea out of it, and take it along in small doses for several days. I have never found anything that served me so well."

"My husband also takes Black-Draught, and he thinks it is splendid. I have told many of my friends about it, and they agree with me that it is a good remedy."

"Since I have known about Black-Draught I have not suffered nearly so much with headache caused from indigestion. If I find my tongue is coated, and I wake up with a bad taste in my mouth, I know I have been eating indigestibly and I immediately resort to Black-Draught to straighten me out."

and division (Blue) lines to support the forces defending the enemy capital, New Braunfels, 22 miles north of here. Blue planes have made raids on enemy territory for two days in the joint air corps-infantry maneuvers to prepare the way for the ground forces. With the completion of the problem of the defense of San Antonio and the capture of the Red capital the planes and ground forces will turn to minor problems for the remainder of the week. A review of more than 250 airplanes is scheduled for Friday. It will be witnessed by Secretary of War Davis and representatives of several foreign nations.

RED CROSS GIFTS

HERE NEAR $360,000

Contribution of $133 From Illinois Town Included in Local List.

The Mississippi Valley floor and tornado relief contributions of the St. Louis Red Cross chapter, up to today, are $358,421. The largest addition in the latest list was made by the Red Cross chapter of Morrisonville, Ill., 72 miles from St. Louis, which gave the entire contents of its treasury, $133.35, in the belief that no greater need for the money would arise.

Another outside contribution was $109.81 from the high school girls of Paragould, Ark. While the time originally set for the campaign has expired, gifts are still urged, in view of the expanding need, and should be taken or sent to the Red Cross Fund, Mercantile Trust Co.

Large local contributions included $200 from an entertainment given by Fred W. Stockham Post, American Legion; $500 from J. H. Trembley of Webster Groves; $200 additional from the United States Bank; and $200 from Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McElroy. Other contributions of $100 or more are:

Parsons Kiwanis Club, $142; Mrs. Albert L. Perkins, $100; Shoe Workers' Protective Union, $100; Third District (St. Louis) State Nurses' Association, $100; and United Hebrew Temple Sunday School, $100.

Why Not Have French Fried Onions For Supper?

IF YOU will try this recipe it will convince you of two things. One is, that Mrs. Ida Bailey Allen's Cook Book (see coupon below) is worth having; the other is, Mazola is the superior oil for all frying because it is a pure vegetable oil and fries all food free from grease.

Why not try this recipe:

French Fried Onions

Use good-sized onions. Peel and cut in crosswise slices one-fourth inch thick. Dust with salt, dip in a slightly beaten egg mixed with one-half cup cold water, then in fine dry crumbs. Put in a frying basket and plunge into deep Mazola hot enough to brown a bit of bread in a minute and a half, 325 degrees F. Fry only enough at one time to cover the bottom of the frying basket.

Send Only 10c

(stamps—coin)

with this coupon and you will receive a copy of Ida Bailey Allen's wonderful new Cook Book, beautifully bound, 112 pages of unusual recipes. Write Corn Products Refining Co., 300 South First Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

THIRD MAN GETS LIFE IN PRISON FOR MELLETT MURDER

Streitenberger, Policeman-Gangster, Convicted by Jury of Working Out Details of the Canton Crime.

By the Associated Press.
CANTON, O., May 18.—Floyd Streitenberger, gangster-policeman of Canton's "jungle" and detective force, was convicted of first degree murder last night and must join his comrades, Patrick McDermott and Ben Rudner, in life imprisonment for the killing of Don R. Mellett, Canton editor.

The jury's recommendation of mercy automatically imposes life imprisonment. The jury was out from 1:30 p. m. to 10 p. m.

Louis Mazer, as a State's witness, told of the plot against Mellett to which he was a party, told of Streitenberger's naming the date, July 16, on which Mellett was to be killed "because there would be a lot of people and a lot of noise" at a sham battle in a park, and testified they drove around in Streitenberger's car to assist McDermott, the gunman, in escaping after Mellett was shot down.

It was this testimony which convicted Streitenberger, the first statement to come from any of the principals accused of Mellett's death, which followed an editorial campaign against members of the underworld.

Streitenberger appeared as the apex in a triangular plot against the crusading editor. McDermott first was convicted as the hired gunman, Rudner next was convicted as the man who paid McDermott to do the actual killing. The former policeman worked out details of the getaway and promised police protection for Mellett's slayers.

Mazer admitted his interest in the plot was protection of his bootleg trade, and his activities were directed principally toward helping any of the three who needed him. An echo of the Mellett investigation was heard last night when Police Chief Wise suspended Daniel Van Gunten, who was on duty in the Canton station house the night Mellett was killed. Testimony in the investigation was that a signal summoning policemen to headquarters went unanswered 22 minutes. Sentence will be pronounced on Streitenberger as soon as the customary motions in the case are filed, it was indicated.

MOTHER LOST 44 YEARS
Son Learns of Her Existence on Foster-Parent's Death.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 18.—Through the aid of the Post-office Department and the press, Ernest O'Brien of Port Angeles, Wash., has located his mother from whom he became separated 44 years ago. She is Mrs. Otto Graenou of Taylor, Tex.

O'Brien's wife wrote to Postmaster General New, explaining her husband had been adopted at that time but was unaware of this fact until the death of his foster mother. She gave his adopted name and said he was born in San Antonio, Tex. The story was published by newspapers and the facts regarding O'Brien's mother and relatives were given the San Antonio Postmaster by William H. Wetegrove, of Mercedes, Tex.

BLACK, fermented India Tea is, without doubt, the most stimulating and refreshing drink in the world. It's the fermentation that gives the kick! No tea that is not fermented can have the same wonderful stimulating properties as India Tea.

If you drink tea, be sure you drink India Tea or a blend containing India Tea. If you have not yet tasted tea, try a cup of India Tea. We know that one cup will convince you of its refreshing and stimulating qualities.

The people of Great Britain drink on the average 6 cups of India Tea or a blend containing India Tea a day to one cup of any other kind. They have been tea drinkers all their lives, and experience has taught them which is the best tea.

How to make a perfect cup of Tea

Use India Tea or a blend containing India Tea, and make it in the correct way. Use an earthenware teapot, previously warmed. Put into it one teaspoonful of India Tea for each person. Be sure the water is poured into the teapot to stand for 5 minutes to infuse. Put a little milk or cream into each cup before serving the tea. It greatly improves the flavor. Then add sugar to taste. India Tea also makes the best iced tea.

Introduce your friends and your guests to Afternoon Tea. But be sure—in order to get the best results—to use

No need to fear body odor
[— just use this toilet soap that purifies pores. It keeps you fresh]

When distance would lend enchantment

IT'S something we hate to admit—that we ourselves may ever be guilty of body odor.

Yet, quick as we are to notice the faintest hint of it in others, we cannot always tell when we offend.

It's also a mistake to regard body odor as a summer problem only. Science proves that even in cool weather pores give off quantities of odor-causing moisture.

But there's no excuse for this unpardonable offense. Just use Lifebuoy. Lifebuoy is so refreshing that it's a joy to bathe with it every day. It purifies pores—gives lasting freedom from body odor.

Those suffering from odor due to underarm perspiration or perspiring feet will especially welcome the purifying action of Lifebuoy's antiseptic lather.

So wonderful for complexion

"For skin health—use Lifebuoy", declare men and women everywhere who have discovered for themselves that Lifebuoy is unsurpassed as a complexion soap. Its pure bland oils keep the skin healthy and clear, as smooth as satin.

But more than being a delightful toilet and bath soap, Lifebuoy helps safeguard health. Its penetrating, antiseptic lather removes germs from hands as well as dirt—thus aiding to protect you and your family against the 27 germ diseases that health authorities say hands may spread.

You'll love its hygienic scent

Lifebuoy is so different from other toilet and bath soaps that even its scent is different. Not a perfume, but a clean, pleasantly hygienic scent which tells you Lifebuoy gives greater protection. Even before you've finished your first cake, you'll learn to love this cleanest of all soap scents, which quickly evaporates after rinsing.

Without its antiseptic, Lifebuoy would still be a wonderful toilet soap—but you wouldn't get the added protection.

Added safety—no extra cost

Lifebuoy assures greater health protection, and freedom from body odor—yet costs no more, probably less, than the toilet soap you now use. Lifebuoy is orange-red, the color of its pure, palm-fruit oils. You can get it wherever soap is sold.

DELMAR-WABASH AGREEMENT FOR VIADUCT PUBLIC

Copy Given Out by Civic Leaders Dissatisfied With Rejection by City Service Board Head.

RAILROAD WOULD PAY 60 PER CENT

Specifies It Shall Not in Any Way Prejudice Proceedings Before State Commission.

The Wabash Railroad is ready to agree with the city for the erection of piers for the Delmar crossing viaduct, and to pay 60 per cent of the cost as the work proceeds. A copy of the agreement which Wabash officials are ready to sign with the city was made public today by Alderman H. C. Waldman of the Twenty-eighth Ward and Attorney George F. Hald, representing some of the property owners of the affected district. The copy was furnished to Hald by the legal department of the Wabash.

The plan, essentially, is that which was placed before Mayor Miller recently, was referred by him to President Kinsey of the Board of Public Service, and was rejected by Kinsey. Waldman and Hald are not satisfied with the reasons given by Kinsey. He held that the plan might jeopardize the legal progress made by the city in the case, and that the time saved would not be more than 30 days in any case. Waldman holds that six months would be saved.

Details of Waldman's Plan. As has been told, Waldman's plan is that foundations should be laid, and concrete piers built, on either side of the railroad tracks. These would be built to support a structure 15 feet above the tracks, the clearance desired by the city, but a height of two or four additional feet could be added, in case the final decision of the controversy is for a compromise plan of 20 feet clearance, or for the 2 feet demanded by the railroad and the trainmen's brotherhood.

This would require abandonment of the present frame bridge structure, which has an awkward curve complicated by the encroachment of street car tracks. The Alderman's proposal is that the roadway should be diverted to a line north of Delmar station, and should remain there until the viaduct is finished. The street car tracks would be placed temporarily on a different line, eliminating what is held to be an element of danger at present.

Agreement Made Public. Waldman said, in the conferences with the Mayor and Kinsey, that the Wabash would agree to his plan, but he did not then have a document to show just what the road would agree to do. The form of agreement now made public sets forth the legal stages of the viaduct controversy, and then says: "The parties hereto are desirous of starting such portion of the work of constructing the viaduct as will be required to be done irrespective of the final decision of the Supreme Court of Missouri, and irrespective of any subsequent order that may be entered by the Public Service Commission."

"Therefore, it is hereby stipulated and agreed between the city and the Wabash that the city may at once begin erection of the necessary foundations and piers of the viaduct structure in accordance with plans heretofore approved by the Public Service Commission; but in so doing, the city shall have the foundations and piers so erected that there may be added to and upon the top of the piers such additional structure as may be necessary to meet any change in the height of the piers, to provide for vertical clearances between the under side of the viaduct and the top of the rails as finally determined by the Public Service Commission or the courts."

Railroad to Pay Monthly Sums. "It is further agreed that from month to month during the progress of the work, the Wabash shall pay to the city an amount equivalent to 60 per cent of the money actually expended in the construction of the foundations and piers; the payments to be made by the Wabash within 30 days after receipt by it of itemized statements of the city, showing, with such detail as is practicable, items of work and the amounts paid therefor by the city."

the city. The Wabash shall have the right, through its accredited representatives and at all reasonable times, to check and verify all such itemized statements. "Neither this agreement, nor the prosecution of any of the work provided for, shall in any wise prejudice either of the parties in the prosecution of any further proceedings before the Public Service Commission or in the prosecution of any appeal."

WITNESS WHO KILLED HIMSELF IS BURIED

Charles Grill Leaped Into the Mississippi From Eads Bridge April 20.

The funeral of Charles Grill, of 2948A Michigan avenue, who jumped into the Mississippi River from Eads Bridge April 20, took place this morning, with services at an undertaking establishment at Gravois and Texas avenues. Burial was in New St. Marcus Cemetery.

Fishermen found the body last Sunday in the river near Harrisonville, Ill., about 35 miles south of St. Louis. It was identified by his father, Frank Grill, a stationary engineer, through bridge work on the teeth and the wedding ring of the elder Grill's first wife, which his son wore.

At the time of his disappearance Grill, who was 25 years old, was a witness in a damage suit against his employers, the Stix, Boser & Puller Dry Goods Co., and his testimony was regarded as of great importance to the plaintiff, who was seeking $24,900 for the injury of her father at the department store in an accident in which Grill was involved, she said that her father, who died of other causes, had suffered in prosperity because of the accident. Grill's testimony was expected to be damaging to his employers, but without it the suit was lost, attorneys asserted.

NOVELIST MAY FACE CHARGE OF MURDER

Leonard Cline Kept Under Guard—Irwin Didn't Call Shooting Accident.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
WILLIMANTIC, Conn., May 18.—After an inquest, conducted by Coroner Arthur G. Bill, last night, at which eight witnesses testified concerning the death of Wilfred Pryor Irwin, the coroner announced he would reserve findings probably for a week. He said it was possible a charge of murder would be preferred against Leonard Cline, novelist and playwright, who is held under guard.
The inquest was secret and the witnesses refused to repeat their stories.
State, county and town officials today continued efforts to unravel the mystery of the death of Irwin, fatally wounded by a charge of buckshot at daybreak Monday, at Cline's home, Chicory Hill, Mansfield.
Cline was unable to be present at the inquest, being in St. Joseph's Hospital recovering after giving a pint and a half of blood for transfusion in an effort to save his friend, Irwin.
Irwin made a dying statement Monday night to Coroner Bill, which the latter would not divulge other than to say that Irwin did not say the shooting was an accident. Up to the time of that statement, Irwin had firmly called it an accident.

PERE MARQUETTE RAILWAY EMPLOYEES VOTE FOR STRIKE

Members of Eight Rafts Overwhelmingly in Favor of Suspension if Arbitration Is Rejected.
By the Associated Press.
DETROIT, Mich., May 18.—Members of eight crafts employed by the Pere Marquette railway have voted overwhelmingly to strike, according to an announcement today by W. A. Paddock, assistant grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.
Paddock, in a formal statement said a date for the suspension has been set but would not be made public. "A strike will occur on the date and time set," he added, "unless the railway company meets the representatives of the men to negotiate a settlement quickly."
The eight crafts involved are the engineers, firemen, conductors, train men, telegraphers, longshoremen, clerks and switchmen.
Paddock's announcement and formal statement was made after Frank H. Altred, president and general manager of the Pere Marquette, had declined to accept arbitration.
BEDROOM FURNITURE TAKEN TO COURT AS EXHIBIT IN SUIT
Jury Decides Against Owner, Awards Upholstering Firm $175 for Alterations.
A set of bedroom furniture was taken into Circuit Judge Wurde-man's Court at Clayton yesterday as an exhibit in the $1800 damage suit brought by J. N. Ziska of 4165 Natural Bridge road against the L. Manne Upholstering Co., 5651 Delmar boulevard. Ziska alleged that the defendant company had ruined the bedroom set, which he claimed to be a walnut antique, in making alterations.
The upholsterers countered with a claim of $235 for making the alterations and $150 for storing the furniture since November, 1924. Harry Manne, president of the company, testified the set was neither antique nor real walnut and declared its value had been enhanced by the alterations. The jury returned a verdict for $175 in favor of the upholstering company.

OIL OPERATORS SIDESTEP PACT TO CURTAIL OUTPUT
Twelve Resume Operations in Seminole Pool, After Shut Down of Week.
TULSA, Ok., May 18.—Despite the agreement between 15 operating companies last Saturday to curtail production in the greater Seminole Oil Pool, a survey today showed 12 operations more under way than a week ago, making a total of 479.
Ray Collins, umpire in the shut-down, is making a complete survey of the pool. The real benefit from the shut-down agreement, he said, will not be noticeable for two or three weeks due to the fact that many operators are drilling inside tests and offset wells to prevent drainage of their leases.
Thirteen wells have been shut down since Saturday when the agreement went into effect. Actual production in the Greater Seminole field has dropped about 10,000 barrels per day since Saturday, according to incomplete tabulations prepared by Collins.

ADmits HE GAVE $843 IN WORTHLESS CHECKS

W. A. McConnell Arrested
When He Returns to Jeweler to Get Ring.

William A. McConnell, a guest at the Marquette Hotel, who had been visiting various stores for several days, making lavish purchases, was arrested yesterday
when he called for a diamond ring
he had ordered at the jewelry store of S. Smith, 604 North Grand boulevard. He had given a worthless check for $110 in payment and the police were waiting when he arrived to get the ring.

He admitted the check was worthless and volunteered the information that he had bought $700 worth of furniture at downtown stores, giving worthless checks in payment. The furniture, however, had not been delivered, he added.
McConnell said he also gave a check for $14.25 in payment for candy at a Grand boulevard store and a $19 check to pay an automobile rental bill, both of which were worthless.

McConnell, after giving the check in payment for the ring, said he would call for it later. Smith telephoned to a bank at Union, Mo., on which it was drawn, to ascertain if the check was good. The man on whose account the check was drawn was in the bank at the time. Smith then notified the police, who today are calling upon merchants to whom McConnell

said he had given worthless checks to verify his story.

AUBURN

STRAIGHT EIGHT Stock Car Makes 86 Miles Per Hour

75 miles in 52 min. 10:77 sec.

86:240

Drawing made from actual photograph of the two leading cars finishing only one-fifth of a second apart in the 75 mile stock car race at Atlantic City Speedway on May 7th. Stutz 86.247 M. P. H. and Auburn Straight Eight 86.240 M. P. H. The closest and most remarkable race of stock cars ever witnessed. Also the most sensational stock car performance on record.

It required courage to enter this stock car race.

All manufacturers and dealers were invited.

But it was not a boulevard parade. It was a merciless battle where only the best could survive.

Even if a manufacturer had faith in his product, still it required courage, because any one of many minor things might happen to put a car out of the running.

Besides, ALL car manufacturers KNOW THE TRUTH about each other's cars. They know WHAT cars are the best built, are the fastest and are the most durable.

For those who entered this supreme test of speed and endurance Auburn has the greatest admiration, because these manufacturers were not afraid for the public to learn the facts.

And what a race it was!

There has never been anything like it.

The first and second cars finished only one-fifth of a second apart after a terrific neck and neck battle for 75 miles.

And the speed is simply phenomenal. Only recently such speed was unknown except in special, costly race cars.

Here is PROOF that certain manufacturers have made amazing strides in perfecting motor cars; in building better cars than the world has ever known; and, in giving value so far in excess of any previous standard that there is no comparison.

Remember, these are strictly stock cars, with fenders, running boards and windshields removed. That is what makes this performance so impressive and significant.

And the Auburn 8-88 stock car, after setting totally new and higher standards for stock car performance;
after having been through the most severe test ever imposed on stock cars, finished the race IN PERFECT condition capable of continued, indefinite performance.

So definite and evident are Auburn's exclusive superiorities that we leave it entirely to you to do your own judging. DRIVE the Auburn 8-88; compare it, and if it does not do all things you want a car to do BETTER than any other, you will not be asked to buy.

Sanctioned	—By the American Auto- mobile Association.
Invited	—All manufacturers and dealers.
For	—Strictly STOCK cars.
Winners	—The first two cars were only 1/5 of a second apart.
90 M.P.H.	—Auburn often made 90 M.P.H. in order to aver- age 86.240 M. P. H. for the entire distance.
Double Proof	—Auburn had two 8-88 roadsters in the race. One made 75 miles in 52 min. 10.77 sec., the other in 52 min. 48.91 sec.

Bockenkamp Will Not Enter District Play

But Most of City's Best Golfers Will Open Qualifying Round Saturday.

Dick Bockenkamp, twice winner of the title, will not take part in the St. Louis district golf championship tournament which opens over the Country Club course Saturday morning. He was married recently and is now on a honeymoon trip.

Don Anderson, another prominent contender and former state champion, will also be absent but most of the familiar old guard will be on hand for the qualifying round which starts Saturday morning at 8 o'clock.

Clarence Wolff will defend the title won at Belleville last year and the other two members of the local "golf trust," Jim Manion and Eddie Heid, are also entered. A. J. Kenney, Elliott Whitbread and others.

Whitbread will be the first golfer to carry the colors of the new Osage Hills club. Forest Park has entered its quota of twelve and Creve Coeur is sending nine players.

The entry list now is slightly over 100 and Clarence Wolff, secretary of the district organization, reports that more are coming in with each mail. He has also received 50 "complimentary" entries which means that the entrant contributes his $5 fee, although unable to play.

Wolff stated today that entries would be received at the first tee.

Time: 1:45-4:5. Arabian, Polv, Devon also ran.

BRAVES AND CUBS BATTLE 40 INNINGS IN TWO CONTESTS

22 INNINGS REQUIRED IN SECOND GAME

Cubs Win on Grimm's Single After Braves' Hurd Pitches the Entire Struggle.

Cubs Have Lost But 2 Out of 13 Long Drawn Games

CHICAGO, May 12.—The Cubs have won 12 of 13 games in the longest major league game in history, a 40-inning battle with the Boston Braves.

The game was a marathon performance, with the Braves leading 1-0 in the 10th inning, but the Cubs rallied to win 1-0 in the 22nd. The game was a record for length, with 40 innings played.

Long Distance Champions

One of the strange features of the extra-inning contest of the Boston Club also figured in the 22nd inning game which is the longest in record. The Braves played a 1-2 tie with Brooklyn on May 1, 1926, the pitchers being Joe Oesch and Herrod Smith for Brooklyn.

The Braves' marathon performance gave the Braves and Cubs 40 innings of baseball in two consecutive evenings. The game was a record for length, with 40 innings played.

The Passing Show.

HE Cornmeck has come and went. And having adverse weather, a pleasant time by all was spent in hammering the leather. The Georgia Peach was on the job, and proved a great attraction. For there is always quite a mob to see the Peach in action.

The Georgia Peach was busy as a one-armed paper hanger, and fans did not forget to run the champion umpirarump. Although the Browns gave Connie's chaps a lovely set of trimmings, those A's may win the flag, perhaps. For Tatum, or per Blinnmont.

The A. L. managers are in doubt. Regarding Johnson's status; but whether Bar is in or out, he is not serving gratis.

The thing that seems to worry them, since "beast" the straits he cracked, is Johnson President pro tem, or President de facto?

EVERYBODY MAKES TM. The errors made by the players figure in the box score, while those made by the managers are reflected in the box office and are more costly.

The boot the owners made on the Ban Johnson-Carl Mays play has cost them a fortune already and the end is not yet.

While not posing as an expert or anything like that, when Jim Maloney and Jack Sharkey go to the post Thursday night our advice would be to place a little bet on the Boston boy.

The woman's place may be in the home, but they didn't make any home runs until after the Athletics and Browns had made six Monday afternoon.

Jones, Injured in First Fall Forfeits Mat Match to London

Nebraska Wrestler Not Seriously Hurt—Defeated Athlete Forces the Willing, but Series of Headlocks Brings Him to Mat.

By Jack Alexander

"I am afraid," remarked the Gentleman at the Ringside as usually as his four beers would permit, "I am afraid that what is meant to be a bizarre and attractive sometimes proves merely to be a soap."

"And, I do not say that modern wrestling is actually so, but the cases of broken and irregular curves and exaggerated poses as exemplified in the actions of the performers in the ring, tonight, cannot but remind the student of history of the architectural mode distinctive of the latter 19th century and the early 18th, when the Renaissance was on the decline."

"Renaissance—now there is something quite different," went on the Gentleman at the Ringside as the game floated softly into the crowd and cesses of his brain and made him dimly conscious that his wealth of erudition was being called upon.

"Renaissance is an English word, isn't it?" (alliterative scoundrelism, if you will pardon the technical allusion), often cultivated by the shill and, in point of fact, one of the most distinguished members of the shill group."

Now Why Did He Knew? The Gentleman at the Ringside stopped short, for to one appeared to be listening. The place seemed empty, in fact. Most of the lights were turned out and someone was collecting soda bottles. So the Gentleman gathered up his case, topped and field glasses (the never went to a sporting event without these slung around his neck), turned lightly behind a silk glove and added economically between the seats, through the entrance and past the open door of a taxicab, as casually as a man carrying four boxes could.

Jimmy London had just thrown Paul Jones in the main event of the Coliseum wrestling show. It was the first, last and only fall before 11:30 o'clock. Jones, it was announced from the ring, was so badly hurt that he would be unable to continue and the match was awarded to London.

The fall came after an hour and thirteen minutes of turbulent contention. Jones, pushing the game from the beginning, took the offensive and several times seemed to have London pinned squarely, his sinuous body closer, his head and shoulders and his arms, pinning him to the mat.

Jimmy took a fearful lot of punishment but when apparently all in, suddenly flew into a reverse headlock and brought Jones down with so much force and so frequently that the young wrestler staggered, finally. He was carried to his dressing room in a semi-conscious condition. Later it was announced that Jones' injuries were painful but not serious and that the trouble was mostly in the neck. That's where most defeated athletes get it.

The real "recoiled" match was staged by Dick DeGuzman and John Mazon. Dick was rolled by Mazon and was ready for the clinch when the one-hour time limit expired and left the decision in mid-air. DeGuzman was hoisted continuously and loudly throughout, if that is news.

In the opener Tony De Vecchi tossed Gene La Daux of Canada, in 12 minutes, the second. About 4000 attended.

Not Much Choice. JIM MALONEY and Jack Sharkey will battle fifteen rounds tomorrow night at New York, in the first big outdoor boxing show of the campaign.

While the world is not thrilled at the announcement, there may be a first-class set of winners by the $200,000 worth of customers who will flock together to see the event.

There is a real stake for the winner and it is therefore reasonable to suppose that both men will extend themselves to the limit. That always makes for a real show, whether it's between two athletes or two world's champions.

It's more the earnestness and the stake involved than the audience displayed that thrills fight fans.

Fight, or Be Discarded. ORDINARILY one would not travel far to view a Sharkey-Maloney contest. With only an average reward confronting the men, the usual caution and safety-first might be expected. Tomorrow, however, each man knows that if he fails to show the proper stuff, he will be thrown into the discard as an opponent for Tunney. His "Big Shot" at a fortune, win or lose, would be gone.

For that reason Sharkey and Maloney probably will give the fans a real run. They are not champions. Each lacks experience. Neither has fought professionally longer than three years.

You Pick 'Em. THE men are not new to one another. Three times they have fought and the issue is still unsettled. Maloney beat Sharkey the first time. He was beating him the second time and had put him on the floor seven times, for long counts, when he fouled his foe through over eagerness. The third time Sharkey outpointed Maloney.

Take this as you will. The outcome is doubtful with Maloney being the more dangerous and Sharkey the cleverer.

Steadman Works Hard for Kaiser

Although their coming 18-round battle for city championship is a full week away, Paul Steadman and Johnny "Peewee" Kaiser, local featherweight rivals, are already making the most of condition as a result of the strenuous training program both fighters have followed during the past 26 days and it is the belief of many fans who have observed their preparatory activities that the scrappers may be compelled to shorten their pace to avoid overdoing the conditioning grind.

Steadman has adopted a morning schedule of road work as part of his training schedule under the direction of George Wileman, coach of the Metropolis boxing team, who has taken him under his managerial wing. In daily sparring workouts at the Metropolis Gymnasium each afternoon, Paul takes on Jimmy Lucas, Billy Cain, Pete White or other volunteers for six or eight rounds of milling.

Kaiser spends about two hours in training workouts at the National Gymnasium each day, devoting a larger portion of his time to shadow-boxing, bag-punching and rope-skiing exercises and spending each session with four slant-hands working on striking and defensive boxing, a dinky featherweight veteran.

Gets So-Hit Game. By the Associated Press. NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., May 12.—Pitting for the local high school team here yesterday, Johnny Cadogan turned back Pennsylvania high without a hit or run while his teammates batted out 12 runs in a seven inning game.

Cadogan pitched to 21 batters and did not let one man reach first base. Sixteen went out on strikes and the others were easy victims at first.

In the opener Tony De Vecchi tossed Gene La Daux of Canada, in 12 minutes, the second. About 4000 attended.

Take this as you will. The outcome is doubtful with Maloney being the more dangerous and Sharkey the cleverer.

While neither fighter is yet in Tunney's class, there is no reason to believe that he has reached his peak. At the age of 24 one would say that Maloney was a rather fine prospect if only he can put a little more horsepower into his punch. Sharkey has no real wallop and therefore is a less interesting prospect.

The winner, it is supposed, will meet Dempsey, before fighting Tunney. If, on that occasion, the said winner carries the fight to Jack, they can draw the curtain on one promising career. In bouts the writer has seen both Maloney and Sharkey carried the battle to their opponents. It is reasonable to believe that is their normal style. Hence, it looks like Dempsey vs. Tunney, next September.

RADIOCAST—By WJZ, New York, and associated stations.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Calm hung over the fighting camp of Jack Sharkey and Jimmy Maloney today, as a prelude to the fistic storm that will beat around them tomorrow night, at the Yankee Stadium.

The battle that nominates one of the other Bostonian for the chance to fight Jack Dempsey and possibly Gene Tunney, will be waged in the very ring in which Tunney took the world crown from Dempsey at Philadelphia, last fall. The roped arena belongs to Tex Rickard and has seen a lot of big-time fighting.

Jack Sharkey, whose confidence is not that of the blushing violet, found a good omen in the fact that it was in the same ring that he scored his victory over Harry Wills last October.

Sharkey weighs about 190 pounds mark; about 10 pounds lighter than Maloney expects to be for the battle. That 10 pounds to Sharkey appeared an advantage rather than a handicap as he hopes thereby to have the edge in speed. Sharkey added that the cut over the eye received in training was nearly healed and would not handicap him.

"Anyway," said the former Gobbler, "he isn't going to hit me in the eye—or anywhere else if I can help it."

Maloney generally is rated the harder puncher, chiefly because of his weight. He can "take it," largely for these reasons the odds, although very close to even, about 7 to 5, gave Maloney what edge there was.

Winner to Meet Dempsey. The announcement by Tex Rickard that the winner of this fight would meet Dempsey caused a stir in the camps of both fighters.

The stake and their rivalry for succession to John L. Sullivan are counted upon to send them both into the ring in a do-or-die mood.

BREWER SUGGESTS CONFERENCE RULE AGAINST 'SCOUTING'.

By the Associated Press. COLUMBIA, Mo., May 18.—Chester L. Brewer, athletic director at the University of Missouri, is heartily in accord with the action by Yale University authorities in abolishing scouting at intercollegiate football games.

"Scouting of football games has become such a general practice in American colleges that it has gotten entirely beyond the ethics of the game," Brewer said. "Also I doubt if its effectiveness is as great as some coaches make out. Unofficial scouting probably never will be eliminated, but certainly all conference should take steps to curb or abolish official scouting, as it is now done."

"If this were done, the spectators would see a much more spectacular game than they do now, as teams would be less hesitant to open with the sensational plays."

M'GRAW TO UTILIZE NEWARK AS FARM

NEWARK, N. J., May 18.—John J. McGraw, of the New York Giants, stated last night at a meeting at Newark Athletic Club, that he had reached a working agreement with the Newark Bears of the International League under which the Bears will receive players from him from time to time and he in turn will have an option on Newark players. For several days there has been gossip that Jack Bentley, pitcher and first baseman of the Giants, would soon be wearing a Bears uniform.

Bobby Jones Tells How a Lucky Break Often Turns Apparent Defeat to Victory

Champion Attributes Triumph at Balustrad Last Year to Chance Incident on the Thirteenth Hole.

By Robert T. Jones Jr. National, British and Southern Open Champion.

IT IS, of course, impossible to participate in or witness a great deal of competitive golf without recognizing the tremendous part played by the break of fortune in any game in which a ball is even over an uneven terrain the element of luck is bound to be of great importance. Two balls striking the ground only a yard apart may find one in a bunker, the other near the hole. That, of course, is expected. But why a lucky bound or a putt that stays out or goes in often changes the whole aspect of a match is not so easy to explain. Sometimes the winning of one hole, which in itself is not important, will give to one player a feeling of confidence or a determination to win which transforms him from a listless human into a whirling dynamo.

I have just read a very fine article by Grantland Rice describing the famous forty-one hole match won by Chick Evans from Reggie Lewis at the Engineers Club, in 1925. As I read the story I was reminded of the tremendous transformation in Evans' appearance when Lewis missed his putt to leave the hole and win the match.

As Chick walked slowly onto that last green he looked to be hopelessly beaten, and his manner showed plainly that he thought so. All the while Lewis was preparing to play his chip from behind the green, Evans was pacing to and fro across the lower edge. He fidgeted with his putter and with his cap, unable to stand still. But when Lewis missed his putt the match was even, Evans seemed to be struck with an electric charge. If his tired body was exhausted before, there was no sign of it visible as he came rushing up the slope to the first tee. Chick was all eagerness to win now that he had been given another chance.

Unlucky Breaks for Outmet. And so it was at Flossmoor in 1923 that I witnessed a similar occurrence. Francis Outmet and Max Marston were having a nip and tuck battle. Francis won the long twelfth to become even, and immediately planted a magnificent pitch four feet from the hole at the short thirteenth. Max, apparently beginning to lose his grip, half-hit his shot, but the ball bounding off the right corner of the green, struck a Boy Scout who was handling the ropes and stopped at the very edge of a deep bunker. But Max was still 10 feet from the hole and Francis was only four. Then the blow fell and it knocked Francis flat. Max holed his long one, Francis missed his, and Max had won the match right there. For to concede that Francis had even an outside chance after that thirteenth hole would be giving him everything possible. True he was only one down with five holes to play but Max now had an advantage which could not be measured in holes.

I sincerely believe that for my victory over Francis at Baltusrol last year I have to thank a break of luck on the thirteenth green of the morning round. Starting off, I lost the first hole, lost the second and we had halved the next 10 in a row. I am sure we both realized that a break one way or the other would be important. On the thirteenth I became embroiled with a sand trap which was so much for me, and was fortunate enough to get my fourth shot dead to the hole. Francis was on neat-1923 that I witnessed a similar occurrence. Francis Outmet and Max Marston were having a nip and tuck battle. Francis won the long twelfth to become even, and immediately planted a magnificent pitch four feet from the hole at the short thirteenth. Max, apparently beginning to lose his grip, half-hit his shot, but the ball bounding off the right corner of the green, struck a Boy Scout who was handling the ropes and stopped at the very edge of a deep bunker. But Max was still 10 feet from the hole and Francis was only four. Then the blow fell and it knocked Francis flat. Max holed his long one, Francis missed his, and Max had won the match right there. For to concede that Francis had even an outside chance after that thirteenth hole would be giving him everything possible. True he was only one down with five holes to play but Max now had an advantage which could not be measured in holes.

ly in two, but overran his putt a few feet, leaving him just outside of the "mimble" circle, and the little one stayed out. Well, I had not won the hole, but neither had I lost it. It seems incredible, but that little stroke of good fortune was the break for me in that match. After that hole, I was in an entirely different mood. Where, before I had been on the defensive, content to halve the holes with little expectation of winning one, I now unconsciously became aggressive and played much better golf.

Hagen Turned the Tide. I might give numerous instances where a little bit of luck has turned the tide. Very often, indeed, the effect upon the result is much greater than in either case I have mentioned. For instance, although I did not see the match, I am confident that had not Sarazen knocked Hagen's ball into the cup at the sixth hole of their Florida match, the result would have been very different, might even have been as great a victory for Gene as it was for Walter. Gene had won three of the first five holes and was left with a short putt to win the sixth. But Hagen fished him with his long putt, and Gene, set upon winning the hole, knocked Walter in for a win instead. Sarazen's psychological advantage was thereby transferred to Hagen, who proceeded promptly to win the next two holes to bring the match back to even terms.

In golf we can never tell when the tables of fate will turn. One careless or indecisive stroke may give our adversary just the encouragement he needs. Or through no fault of our own, the holing of one long putt may set him off on an inspired burst which will sweep us off our feet. So we can never be sure of victory or defeat until the last putt is in the hole. Until then we must play every shot as well as we possibly can. Having done that, we can do no more than the heavens fall.

C.B.C. Breaks Tie In Prep League By 8-6 Victory

Displaces St. Louis U. High From Top Position and Leads by Half Game.

Christian Brothers defeated Country Day, 8 to 6, yesterday and took the lead by half a game in the Preparatory League, displacing St. Louis U. High.

The Hi-Points squad had to fight hard to down Country Day, which twice had the lead. Johnny Corcoran struck the deciding blow for Christian Brothers when he hit a home run in the sixth with two men on base.

The winners now top the circuit with six wins and two losses, as compared to the six-and-three standing of St. Louis U. High.

O'FARRELL'S

Is it against the rule for the batsman to step from one box to another while the catcher is returning the ball to the pitcher?—Amateur.

No.

An outfielder muffs a fly ball with one foot in fair territory and the other in foul territory and to the umpire the ball seems to come right down the foul line. How should he decide it?—W. F. P.

Call it fair. See rule 44.

If a batter makes an attempt to sacrifice and the fielder makes an error on the ball does the batter get credit for a sacrifice?—SCORER.

Yes.

Can a pitcher step toward third base and bluff to throw the ball to first base?—A. C.

Yes, if he steps off the plate properly. The pitcher is not compelled to throw to third base.

Suppose that a pitcher is taken out of the box in the seventh inning with two hands out and three runners on the bases and the score 3 to 2 in his favor and all of the men score. Against whom are the runs charged?—W. A. T.

Against the pitcher who was taken out.

ORTHODOX STRING TO COLLEGE GIFT

Kansas Cityan Offers $100,000 to William Jewell if It Teaches Genesis.

By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 18.—The offer of a $100,000 gift, with fundamentalist strings attached, to William Jewell College, at Liberty, Mo., gives promise of a split in Baptist ranks.

While the Baptist Ministerial Alliance of Kansas City withheld approval of the terms of the gift and letters were sent to members of the board of trustees of the college urging its rejection, William D. Johnson, chairman of the board, indicated the board would not be "dictated to" by any group and said the gift would be accepted. It is the largest gift ever offered the college.

Joseph B. Reynolds, president of the Kansas City Life Insurance Co., who offered the gift, said he would "not change one word" of the terms, which included: "The students who receive financial aid from said fund must subscribe to the teachings of the Bible in the account of the creation of the earth and man; that the Bible is the inspired word of God; the virgin birth of Jesus Christ; His divinity; His deity; His works as recorded in the gospels; His death on the cross; resurrection; ascension; that He will come again in like manner. The college agrees to so teach and instruct such students."

Dr. D. J. Evans, pastor of the First Baptist Church here and former president of William Jewell, said the last sentence of the terms of the gift would necessitate a change in the curriculum of the college and prevent the teaching of biology, geology and other sciences in seeming conflict with the Book of Genesis.

Dr. Evans said that in his judgment "the college would render a far greater service to society in rejecting the gift, as great as it is, than by accepting with terms unchanged."

The Rev. A. G. Hause, pastor of the Maywood Baptist Church, predicted a majority of the Baptists in Kansas City and Missouri would endorse the terms of the gift, but added that the differences might cause a definite split in Baptist ranks on the modernist-fundamentalist issue.

Reynolds gift was described in a public address by Dr. H. C. Wasmann, president of the sect, as "Much ado about nothing."

"There is no conflict between real religion and true learning. All of accepting Reynolds' magnanimity, this is not a time for a mouse gift."

CONFERENCE FOR

Resolution Introduced Authorizing League to Propose Identical Tariff System for Europe.

HIGH PROTECTIVE
POLICIES CRITICISED

Motion Regarding Tariff Investigations Thought to Be Aimed at U. S. Treasury Practice.

By the Associated Press.
GENEVA, May 18.—A move to word an European customs union was deduced by many delegates today from a resolution which was given preliminary approval by the economic conference.

Under this resolution, the League of Nations would be authorized to propose measures best calculated to obtain either an identical tariff system among European countries or a common basis for the elaboration of long-term commercial treaties.

Subcommittees previously had criticized excessive tariff protection and laid down the doctrine that nations should remove, or at least diminish, tariff barriers which were greatly hampering trade, by beginning with those barriers imposed to counteract the effects of the great war.

The granting of unconditional most-favored nation treatment was declared to be essential to a healthy development of commerce.

Some delegates interpreted another resolution concerning the application of tariffs as an implied criticism of the policy of American Treasury agents in occasionally examining the books of European manufacturers to determine the cost of production.

The resolution says that investigation in connection with the application of customs duties should be administered with full regard for the maintenance of commercial good will among nations and that inspections involving inquisitorial procedure should be eliminated.

"EMPEROR" OF PHILIPPINES
AGREES TO GO TO MANILA

By the Associated Press.
MANILA, May 18.—Responsibility for the rise of the once menacing "Empire of Flor" intruder, insane "emperor" of the Philippines, was placed today upon the provincial and municipal officials of the Visayan Islands by Governor General Wood.

In a report to Washington, the Governor General said that the authorities were at fault in failing to prevent gathering of large groups of armed men. At the same time, Wood praised his aide, Major Burton Y. Read, for preventing conflict with resulting serious loss of life.

Major Read was one of the officers who brought the situation under control after a group of Intruder's followers attempted to seize control in four towns last week, while another surrounded "emperors" bamboo "palace" to resist any attempt to remove him to an asylum.

Intruder's aide is en route to Manila, having been persuaded yesterday that only by his departure could bloodshed be prevented.

More than 500 of the demented leader's followers have been rounded up and others are surrounded, indicating that the revolutionary movement has been crushed. Working among credulous natives, Intruder's followers following said to have numbered nearly 400,000 by promising an immediate Utopia of no work and no play.

"With the possible exception of the ministry our physicians are the most unparalytic of their skill for the ailments of human suffering," he said.

"Constructive criticism proper and ought to be asserted. 'Mere flattery has no value except to flatter the flatterer. It is a long way from truth, but the fact that it is not complete is a proper value the use the beauty of those who are nearing completion."

W. SMITH AT PIER TO SAY FAREWELL TO MACDONALD

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 18.—Three hundred persons cheered Governor Berengaria to pay his respects to J. Ramsay MacDonald, former Premier of England, who departed early today. Among them were 500 friends of Mickey Walker, who thought the Governor there to see the middleweight champion, who also was a singer.

The Governor and MacDonald had met. MacDonald intended to visit the Governor at Albany, but illness prevented.

At the outset of his career, Coolidge asserted that he had witnessed the genesis which prevails upon moderate epidemic break not help realize the most important fact of everyday existence is a health, which has come dependent upon sanitation medical profession. "I later he emphasized there is any one thing progress of science has it is the necessity of an Without this attitude advance could be made must always be able to cope with the world. It has been demonstrated, in direction it may lead, it followed.

"The remarkable America to adopt this been one of the leading its rise to power. It has been a co-ordination which has raised the ward of life. In the development of this general policy the medicine has had its part.

"No tendencies in medicine have been more outside those toward conservatism operation, both in public and private activities. . . . The President pointed out, directly, its result are costly."

In a tribute to the President, Mr. Coolidge said: "There is no finer page of civilization than records the advance of science."

The heroism of those who worked with deadly permitted themselves to be related with disease, to countless thousands saved. He went on to say, "There is no finer page of civilization than records the advance of science."

MOVE IN GENEVA

Resolution Introduced Authorizing League to Propose Identical Tariff System for Europe.

HIGH PROTECTIVE
POLICIES CRITICISED

Motion Regarding Tariff Investigations Thought to Be Aimed at U. S. Treasury Practice.

By the Associated Press.
GENEVA, May 18.—A move to ward a European customs union was deduced by many delegates today from a resolution which was given preliminary approval by the economic conference.

Under this resolution, the League of Nations would be authorized to propose measures believed to obtain either an identical tariff system among European countries or a common basis for the elaboration of long-term commercial treaties.

Subcommittees previously had criticized excessive tariff protection and laid down the doctrine that tariffs should be removed, or at least diminished, tariff barriers which were greatly hampering trade, by beginning with those barriers imposed to counteract the effects of the great war.

The granting of unconditional most-favored nation treatment was deemed to be essential to a healthy development of commerce.
Some delegates interpreted another resolution concerning the application of tariffs as an implied criticism of the policy of American Treasury agents in occasionally examining the books of European manufacturers to determine the cost of production.

The resolution says that investigation in connection with the application of customs duties should be administered with full regard for the maintenance of commercial peace among nations and that inspections involving inquisitorial procedure should be eliminated.

Gen. Wood Puts Responsibility for His Rebellion on Local Authorities.

By the Associated Press.
MANILA, May 18.—Responsibility for the rise of the once menacing "Emperor" of Flor Intren-derado, Insane "emperor" of the Philippines, was placed today upon the provincial and municipal officials of the Visayan Islands by Governor General Wood.

In a report to Washington, the Governor General said that the authorities were at fault in failing to prevent gathering of large groups of armed men. At the same time, Wood praised his aide de camp, Major Burton Y. Read, for preventing conflict with resulting serious loss of life.

Major Read was one of the officers who brought the situation under control after a group of Intenderado's followers attempted to seize control in four towns last week, while another surrounded him, "emperor" bamboo "palladium" to resist any attempt to move him to an asylum.

Intenderado is en route to Manila, having been persuaded yesterday that only by his departure could bloodshed be prevented.
More than 500 of the demented leader's followers have been rounded up and others are surrendering, indicating that the revolutionary movement has been crushed. Working among credu-lous natives, Intenderado gained following said to have numbered nearly 400,000 by promising an immediate Utopia of no work and no pay.

SMITH AT PIER TO SAY

ernor Smith when he appeared unexpectedly at the pier of the Cunard liner Berengaria to pay his respects to J. Ramsay MacDonald,

GOOD HEALTH OF WORLD A STEP TOWARD PEACE, COOLIDGE TELLS DOCTORS

President, in Address to American Medical Association, Declares Physical Welfare Closely Allied With National Progress.

Post-Dispatch Bureau,
20-23 Wyatt Bldg.
WASHINGTON, May 18.—"It is to your profession in its broadest sense, untrammelled by the contentions of different schools, that the world may look for large contributions toward its regeneration, physically, mentally and spiritually, when not forced but reason will hold universal sway", President Coolidge said in an address before the American Medical Association here last night.

"If we could effectively rid our systems of poison, not only would our bodily vigor be strengthened,
but our vision would be clearer,
our moral power more accurate and our moral power increased," he declared. "We should come to a more perfect appreciation of the truth."
"As human beings gain in individual perfection," the President
continued, "so the world will gain in social perfection, and we may hope to come into an era of right living and right thinking, of good will, and of peace, in accordance with the teachings of the Great Physician."

Open Mind Necessary.
At the outset of his address Mr.
Coolidge asserted that "those who have witnessed the general paralysis which prevails when even a moderate epidemic breaks out cannot help but realize that one of the most important factors of our everyday existence is the public health, which has come to be dependent upon sanitation and the medical profession."

"We are constantly in receipt of the beneficial activities of these efforts in the disposition of waste, the water we drink, the food we eat, and even in the air we breathe. This great work is carried on partly through private initiative, partly through Government effort, partly by a combination of these two working in harmony with the science of chemistry, of engineering, and of applied medicine. In its main aspects it is preventive, but in a very large field it is remedial."

"Without this service our large centers of population would be overwhelmed and dissipated almost in a day and the modern organization of society would be altogether destroyed. The debt which we owe to the science of medicine is simply beyond computation or comprehension."

The Scientific Age.
"These benefits have almost all come to the world within a few generations. Pure science, as we understand the term, has a very recent origin. In fact, the world goes back but a short distance to find the first modern comprehension of the difference between sound thought and visionary speculation."

Since that day we have come to what is known as the scientific age.
"Almost all over the world men are making observations, collecting accurate information, comparing ascertained facts, and working toward established conclusions.
Although great progress has been made and centers of knowledge have become well established, we can not yet estimate the development of scientific research as much more than begun. But great effort is being put out all around us and a constant advancement of knowledge is in progress."

"This has been especially true in the science of medicine. Many of the diseases which laid a heavy load on life have been entirely eradicated and many others have been greatly circumvented. The average length of life has been greatly increased. But there is still an enormous economic loss in sickness, and the list of maladies for which no remedy is known is still large."

Necessity of Open Mind.
"How far the mind has an effect on the body is not yet accurately known. What mental reactions may be set up to preserve health or combat disease can not yet be stated."

"If there is any one thing which the progress of science has taught us, it is the necessity of an open mind. Without this attitude very little advance could be made. Truth must always be able to demonstrate itself. But when it has been demonstrated, in whatever direction
it may lead, it ought to be followed."

"The remarkable ability of America to adopt this policy has been one of the leading factors in its rise to power. When a principle has been demonstrated, the American people have not hesitated to adopt it and put it into practice.
Being free from the unwarranted impediments of custom and caste,
we have been able to accept heartily the results of research and investigation and the benefits of discovery and invention."

"This policy has been the practical working out of the application of efficiency in life. We theory of our mines and assembled coal and iron with which we have wrought wonderful machinery, we have harnessed our water power, we have directed the flow of agriculture, the result of which has been to put more power at the disposal of the individual. Eliminating waste and increasing production. It has all been a co-ordinated effort."

SOVIET THREATENS TO END BRITISH TRADE AGREEMENT

In Note Delivered to English Charge at Moscow, Russia Protests Against London Raid.

RESERVES RIGHT TO CLAIM DAMAGES

Declares Officials Were Beaten and Demands Assurances Commercial Treaty Will Be Observed.

By the Associated Press.
MOSCOW, May 18.—"A most serious and hostile act" is the way Russian officials in the note delivered to English House in note of protest presented to the British Charge d'Affaires by Maxim Litvinoff, acting Foreign Minister.

The note says that commercial intercourse with Great Britain cannot be continued unless there is exact fulfillment of a commercial treaty of 1921.

The principle of immunity of trade delegations and representatives of the Soviet Union, the note says, was embodied in that agreement, "which now has been violated by the British authorities in the grossest and most insulting manner."

The note presented last night insists that officials who protested against the demands of the police "were subjected to violence, even beaten, while the wife of an international delegate, who was on the premises and has a diplomatic passport, was violently detained and searched."

"The Soviet Government declares
it reserves the right to make claims for violation by the British Government of the agreement, for the insult offered thereby, and for material losses growing out of the raid."

The note points out that Soviet interior development is based on a definite economic plan and foreign trade relations, and accordingly this plan cannot be jeopardized by the actions of the British domestic political considerations.

The note demands that the commercial treaty of 1921 be observed
"free from violations growing out of the raid, and that the correspondent of the treaty be respected by the British Government, and that no further violations of this kind be permitted."

Campaign of Hostility.
"The Soviet Government" continues the note "has observed with satisfaction the intervention of the Soviet market evidenced by London and the Soviet economic organization has been more and more trusted by the London banks. In proof of which an agreement was signed last day ago between the Soviet and one of these banks for $10,000,000, ($50,000,000)."

"But a campaign of unheard-of hostility, which reached its culmination in the raid on the Soviet trade delegation, induces the Soviet Government, with all the seriousness and frankness which the grave situation demands, to lay down before the British Government the conditions which it will further to maintain and develop Anglo-Soviet relations, or it is its intention to oppose this in the future."

The note begins by confirming and upholding the protest which
M. Rosegal, the Soviet charge, made in London. It says:
"No Justification For Raid."
"The fact that the trade delegation, by its activity, gave no justification for such a raid can be proved by the circumstances that the British Government has not made a single representation or complaint about this activity."

"Against the unfounded and absolutely unproved, although often repeated, accusations against the Soviet Government of non-observance of obligations undertaken and violation of the rules of international relations" says the note,
"the Soviet Government can produce absolutely unquestionable proof of the violation by the British Government of the agreement of 1921 and of the most offensive handling of persons enjoying the right of diplomatic immunity, while the requirements of international law and recognized international usage have been totally ignored."

Russian Trade Restriction.
The Council of People's Commissaries, it was announced today by the news agency, has decided that foreign trade operations henceforth are to be conducted by Soviet representatives and economic organizations as a general rule only in those countries with which the Soviet has formal diplomatic relations and where Soviet trade organizations are guaranteed conditions which insure that their operations will not be interrupted."

It was added that the Commissariat of trade may permit exceptions to the rule only when they are made necessary by particularly important economic considerations or the peculiar nature of some special transaction.

Painted Flags Identify Foreign Ships in China

pedient also has been adopted by American and British masters to invalidate the excuse by warring Chinese that the flag was not seen when the ship was fired on.

PUBLICITY ON SILENCE VEXES THE PRESIDENT

Doesn't Want to Be Reported as Refusing to Answer Certain Questions.

Post-Dispatch Bureau,
20-23 Wyatt Bldg.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The White House served notice to the Washington correspondents yesterday that President Coolidge expects to be the arbiter of what shall and shall not be published as a result of the semi-weekly newspaper conferences with the President.

President Coolidge is displeased because correspondents disclosed that he had refused to answer queries put to him last Friday asking whether he had signed an anti-third term petition in 1912, as alleged by Michael O'Shea, a Massachusetts politician. At least 25 written questions regarding the petition were put before the President, but none was answered.

At the White House the correspondents were told that when questions were submitted to the President, and were not replied to, the fact that the President had not made a reply should not be disclosed.

The White House announcement caused concern to many Washington correspondents who objected to the restrictions placed upon their writing. The general understanding has been that correspondents were free to tell what was discussed or not discussed at the conference and to respect his wishes. There is no record of any correspondent having broken such a confidence.

SOVIET UNION REGISTERS
1,271,000 UNEMPLOYED

Number Increasing; Authorities Propose to Give Dole According to Earning Capacities.

By the Associated Press.
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
RIGA, May 18.—According to official reports published in the Soviet Press, the towns in the Soviet union have a total of 10-313,000 workers, of whom 1,271-000 are registered unemployed, an increase of 320,805 unemployed compared with a year ago.

One of the chief causes of unemployment is influx into the towns of people from the villages. The possibility of the unemployed being absorbed into industry is dimish-ing, while their numbers are increasing. Only 400,000 registered unemployed receive material relief, amounting on an average to 16
rubles (nominally $6), a month.
Fifty per cent of the unemployed are women. 40 per cent are unskilled workers, and 20 per cent are brain-workers, among them being a considerable number of teachers and physicians.

The authorities are now dividing the unemployed into several categories, and propose to give dols to the first category amounting to 23
per cent of their ordinary wages, to the second 25 per cent and to the third 20 per cent.

AUTOS CROWD OUT BURROS

Barred From Mexico City Streets
as "Undignified Aspect."

By the Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, May 18.—Mexico's ubiquitous beast of burden, the burro, has been barred from the streets of the capital.

The patient, picturesquely little animal, which for centuries have packed cargoes of country produce to the metropolis, now interfere with automobile traffic, and according to an official order issued today, give an "undignified aspect to a civilized city." Therefore, the authorities forbid burros upon a paved street during daylight hours.

El Universal Grafico extends condolences to the burro tribe as the latest victims of civilization."

DETROIT PLANS TO ESTABLISH GREAT GALLERY OF ART WORK

Institute Building Erected at Cost of $4,000,000; City Gives $150,000 Annually.

By the Associated Press.
DETROIT, Mich., May 18.—Purchase of Rembrandt's "The Visitation of St. Elizabeth," by the city-owned Institute of arts, marked a step in a movement to establish one of the greatest galleries in the world here, according to Dr. William R. Valentiner, director of the Institute.

The movement, started with the recent erection of the institute building at a cost of $4,000,000, is sponsored by the city and civic organizations. It is the hope of the sponsors to ultimately establish Detroit as an art center.

The city has voted a yearly appropriation of not less than $150-000 for purchase of art works, while the affiliated organizations are pledged to double this figure many times over.

FASCIST WORKMEN'S PAY CUT 15 TO 20 PER CENT

Regional Wage Reductions at Savona Docks and Spoleto Cotton Mills.

By the Associated Press.
ROME, May 18.—Two new regional wage reduction agreements between Fascist employers and employees were announced today.

Port workers at Savona, important Liguria shipping center, accepted an average reduction of nearly 20 per cent, ranging from 23 per cent for loading and 25 per cent for crane work, to 5 per cent for portage.

Cotton mill workers at Spoleto accepted a 15 per cent cut, the companies guaranteeing not to reduce the days or hours of labor.

POLISH GIRL AWARDED FIRST PRIZE FOR BEST MANUSCRIPT

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, May 18.—A Polish girl, who came to this country when she was 10 years old, Miss Leokadia Popowska, a senior in the journalism department of the University of Michigan, has been awarded first prize of $50 for the best manuscript submitted to Harper's Magazine in the intercollegiate literary contest of 1927.

Her short story, "The Living Sand," was selected by the judges of the contest.

LITTLE ENTENTE RENEWED

Rumania and Czecho-Slovakia Reaffirm Treaty, with Jugoslavia.

Copyright, 1927, by the Press and Publications, New York World and Post-Dispatch.

BERLIN, May 18.—The most important outcome of the little entente conference at Joachimthal came today with reaffirmation of the treaty, whereby, if Jugoslavia is attacked by Hungary or Bulgaria, in case of war with Italy, Rumania and Czecho-Slovakia would come to Jugoslavia's aid.

This renewed undertaking, according to dispatches from Joachimthal, was reached after full discussion of the Italo-Albanian

No Move Ready to Recognize Chiang's Government.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, May 18.—Great Britain's diplomatic break with the Nankow Nationalists does not mean that relations will be reestablished with Chiang Kai-shek's Nanking regime, the Associated Press was authoritatively informed today.

BRITAIN BREAKS WITH HANKOW REGIME

Declares Eugene Chen's Government is Not Responsible by Modern Standards.

By the Associated Press.
PEKIN, May 18.—Withdrawal of Basil Newton as the British Minister's representative at Hankow, seat of the Nationalist Government in the Central Yangtze Valley, was accompanied by delivery of a note declaring that the Hankow regime had "failed to make good its claim to govern in accordance with the standards of a responsible modern government."

The note, made public by the British legation today, is regarded as tantamount to breaking off of the quasi-diplomatic relations that have existed between Great Britain and the Hankow regime since the Charge d'Affaires, Owen O'Malley, opened negotiations with Foreign Minister Chen in January.

Great Britain, the communication said, "was forced to the conclusion" that for Newton to remain
"at the seat of a regime so totally incapable of discharging the responsibilities of a civilized government would be both useless and undesirable," hence he was leaving forthwith.

The note reviewed British-Hankow relations, including the visit of the British Minister, Sir Miles Lampson, to Hankow last year and the Hankow regime's undertaking to speak for the Chinese nation.

It recalled the surrender of the Hankow British concession to the Chinese, the spread of anarchy in Hunan Province, the influence of the Communists, the crippling of the Hankow trade, and then the Chinking and Nanking incidents in which foreigners were attacked.

Special importance is attached to then to here because the British Minister is now enroute to Shanghai aboard a warship, to confer with Major-General Duncan and Admiral Sir Reginald Tyrwhitt regarding the future dispositions of the British forces in China.
Although it is stated that he does not intend to go to Nanking, seat of the Moderate Nationalist regime, it is probable that he will come into contact with Chiang Kai-shek's representatives in Shanghai.

Diplomatic circles here anticipate a new orientation in the British policy regarding the Nationalists in the line of ignoring the Hankow faction henceforth and dealing with Chiang's Nanking regime.

MADRID, May 18.—Gen. Primo de Rivera, the Spanish Premier, has declined the greatest honor which King Alfonso could bestow upon one of his subjects—the Order of the Golden Fleece—it became known today.

The Premier, received by the King yesterday, said the occasion of the monarch's forty-first birthday and the twenty-fifth anniversary of his coronation, tried to persuade him that he was unworthy of the honor.

An official announcement, however, explains that the honor has been "postponed," in compliance with the wishes of the Premier,
who pleaded that he did not desire to be singled out for the honor at this time.

SHANGHAI, May 18.—The Ja-

ing to Hankow with a Japanese Foreign Office mission to investigate conditions in the Yangtze Valley, was fired on by Northern Chinese troops while anchored off Chinking last night.

The destroyer replied with its heavy guns, the firing continuing for two hours. A warrant officer on the bridge was wounded.

The Northern Cruisers Hachi
and Chao, part of the squadron of Gen. Chang Tsung-chang, today bombarded the Woosung Forts, north of Shanghai, held by the Southerners. The forts replied.

Five Southern destroyers, upon hearing that the bombardment was likely, withdrew from the vicinity of the forts, proceeding up the Whangpoo River to safety. They stopped opposite Lungsha, a little beyond Shanghai.

In two hours' firing the Northern cruisers made three direct hits, doing much damage. The forts failed to hit the cruisers, which finally steamed away.

Of Making Many Books

By the Author of
"Tom Fool"

MOONRAKER, OR THE MALE PIRATE AND HER FRIENDS. By F. TENNYSON
JESSE (Knopf).

TENNYSON JESSE happens to be a grand-nephew of the poet, Tennyson, but the fact does not constitute her claim to distinction. When she is at her best as a novelist there is a strange beauty in her work that places her as a class by herself. Lost this year, the reader is urged to read a copy of "Tom Fool," published last year, and brood over it. There is enchantment in that book. Because the quality of "Tom Fool" is remembered with pleasure nearly a year of constant reading, "Moonraker" seemed to promise a rare experience. It proved a bit disappointing—a fact which the writer is inclined to attribute to the rare merits of the former book rather than to any failure in the second. "Moonraker" is a good yarn well told. It is concerned with an English boy's adventures by land and sea at the beginning of the nineteenth century.

Jacky Jacks runs away to sea, and the merchantman, upon which he serves as cabin boy, is attacked and sent to the bottom by the pirate ship, "Moonraker." Jacky becomes the servant of the pirate captain. There is an interlude in which the boy takes part in a "Toussaint" movement, a struggle with France for the freedom of the Negroes in San Domingo. This portion is especially impressive, and the pitiful story of Toussaint's betrayal, as told by Miss Jesse, is likely to be remembered by most who read it.

Thereafter the tale deals with the last voyage of the "Moonraker," in which it is revealed that the ruthless pirate captain is a woman, whose realization of her inability to win love results in catastrophe for ship and crew. INDIAN GOLD-SEEKER. By H. S. Spalding, S. J. (Benziger).

An adventure tale for boys that is described as having all the thrilling quality of "Diamond Dick" plus moral backbone.

WHOOOPS, DEARIE! By Peter Arno. (Simon & Schuster.) The diverting antics of Pansey and illustrated by the star funny man of the New Yorker.

THE SOMBRE FLAME. By Samuel Rogers. (Payson & Clarke.) Describes the emotional reactions to each other of two New Englanders of widely divergent types involved in an impossible marriage. The author is professor of French contemporary literature at the University of Wisconsin.

PREHISTORIC MAN. By Heith Henderson. (Dutton.) Describes the Cro-Magnon cave-dwellers, the beginnings of tribal customs, the probable methods of hunting in prehistoric times, the burial grounds, the monuments, and the probable beliefs of our remote ancestors. The style is popular, but the material is all from authoritative sources.

THE LAND OF PROMISE. By Margaret Lynn. (Little, Brown & Co.) The story of an Ohio family pioneering on the Kansas plains before the Civil War.

LUDWIG VAN BEETHOVEN'S PIANO PORTRAIT. By A. Danhauser. (Dutton.) A Danish musical critic here analyzes the great sonatas and tells how and why each was composed. Emphasis is laid upon the element of human interest, and the author's style makes easy reading. The

$16,938 AT AUCTION

Gainsborough, Reynolds and Corot Art Among Works Sold Under the Hammer.

Forty-four paintings from the collection of the late Isaac Cook Reynolds, including a Gainsborough, Reynolds, and a Corot—brought under the auctioneer's hammer last night at a sale conducted in the Cook residence, 318 North 1st St., St. Louis.

The Gainsborough painting, a portrait of Mrs. Siddons, the eighteenth century actress, went for $3,000, bringing the highest price of the auction. The Reynolds piece, painted on a wood panel and called "Portrait of a Lady"—sold at $2,500 to Mr. S. F. Corot, a study of sand and sea, painted in a flat gray light, for $1,500.

The bidding for the Gainsborough, which began at $1,500, climbed to $3,000, and mounted at $100 a bid to the final selling price. A miniature of $2500 was placed on the auctioneer's block by Mrs. Reynolds. The Corot did not arouse much interest, bidding for it being about $1,000 and closing at $1,150. In further connection with the two masterpieces, the collection, was a painting of a woman, which was apathy that greeted several pieces causing them to be withdrawn. A richly wooded hunting scene by Gustave Courbet drew one of $300, after which, except for a voice of the auctioneer, silence fell upon the crowd. It was withdrawn.

A water-color by Edwin Austin Abbey—the study of a sea-horse—brought one bid of $200 and, when it went begging, was withdrawn. McCaughen & Burr, art dealers in charge of the sale, also withdrew a Delacroix, picturing the mad Quixote, which is said to have been bought 35 years ago for $4500. Producing one bid of $500, the picture was taken down.

Thomas Wright Buys Two. A strongly executed pastel of a woman reapers in the field, by Leon L'Hermitte, was bought for $900 by Thomas Wright, investment broker, of Portland Place. He also purchased a Delacroix, a characteristic study of sheep and shepherd, for $550.

Next to the Reynolds and Gainsborough, the best prices paid were $1700, for a Canin landscape, bought by W. H. Bixby; $1500 for the D'Aubigny—"Washerwomen on the Oise"—bought by A. S. Love, of 44 Westmoreland place; $1300 for a Jerome harem scene, with characteristic silken finish, bought by Bixby; $1100 for the Fortuny "Les Amis," a masterpiece in composition which took the Prix de Rome in 1856, bought by Bixby.

A George Hitchcock—"Field of Hyacinths"—was sold to Edward Faust for $775. He bought also a figure study by Melssohn for $250. A Vibert was bought by Max Weinberg for $275. John T. Davis bought a Roldini for $350. Other paintings—brought all the way from $5 up to $100.

Another Auction Friday. It was announced that the paintings withdrawn last night, with several other paintings and a vase, will be put up at auction Friday night, again at the Cook residence.

The late Isaac Cook Jr., was the son of the only maker in the country to achieve and market a successful champagne. He first took

Social Items

THE wedding of Miss Susan Elizabeth Hawes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Hawes, and Samuel Davis Capen Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Capen, took place at 5 o'clock this afternoon, will contribute much to the social gaiety of the week. An elaborate altar built in the south windows of the Hawes home at 4943 Maryland avenue will form the setting for the service, to be read by the Rev. Dr. John W. MacIvor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

The background is of green velvet covered with asparagus fern and there is a canopy of cultivated smilax and fern studded with roses, under which the bride party will stand. More than 1000 long-stemmed yellow tulips are arranged in gold vases about the altar and the same color scheme continues through the reception rooms.

The bride party will descend the stairway and walk through an aisle of smilax garlands, its posts topped with Columbia roses, to the altar, where the Rev. Dr. John W. MacIvor of the Second Presbyterian Church, will perform the ceremony.

The bride's gown is of ivory satin, its soft folds forming a three-tier wrap around skirt with long pointed draperies at the left side held by an ornament of orange blossoms with tendrils falling to the ground. The bodice is designed with a square yoke of tulle studded with seed pearls and outlined with a row of pearls. Long tulle sleeves are finished in a pointed over the hand. The train, five yards in length, falls from a rose point Catherine de Medici collar, and is finished in scallops bordered with orange blossoms. A scarf of rare old rose point tulle with a length is applied in the train which is lined with shimmering silver mesh through which the outline of the gown is visible. Her tulle veil will be arranged from a Russian headdress of rose point with folds of the tulle extending several inches higher than the bride cap. Showers of orange blossoms adorned either side of the cap and a short veil of tulle will cover her face. She is to carry a shower of lilies of the valley.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Martin Lammert III, will wear yellow chiffon. Miss Louise McClure, Miss Katherine McClure, Miss Elizabeth Scudder and Miss Mary Elsie Lammert, bridesmaids, will be in powder blue. The gowns are made similarly with tight bodices with an overdress of tulle, the blousing in the back, drawn tight at the front and finished with a rhinestone ornament. The irregular skirts are made on flowing lines and draped to the front. They are to wear hats of tulle with their gowns finished with a plange of velvet and adorned with a single chiffon flower. Their flowers are to be pernet roses and blue delphiniums.

Miss Martha Corbin Smith, maid of honor, is to wear canary yellow chiffon designed in bolero effect and with a full circular skirt of tulle draped to the front with a girle ending in a soft bow ornamented by rhinestones. She will wear a hairbrail hat to match.

Mrs. Hawes is to wear cream lace with a picture hat of hairbrail rimmed with hydrangeas, and Mrs. Capen will be in echru georgette and lace.

Edwin Law of Chicago is to be best man, and the groomsmen are Kingsman Ludington, Albert Bond Lambert Jr., Noel Carpenter, Robert Hawes, Edward Brooks of St. Louis, and Edward Stuart of Dallas, Tex.

Following the ceremony there will be a large reception, and a dinner for the bride party on the enclosed second floor porch, where the decorations are to be valley lilies and butterfly roses.

Mr. Capen gave his bride a diamond and platinum bracelet as a wedding gift and his attendants silver cigarette cases. The bride presented her bridesmaids with platinum pins set with sapphires.

Mr. Capen and his bride will occupy an apartment in the Kingsbury Court, Clara avenue and Kingsbury boulevard, on their return from a wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude S. Kennerly of 28 Portland place and their family will sail May 21 for New York after a tour of the world. They will land in New York May 27, and Mr. Kennerly and his son, Noel, will come directly to St. Louis.

Mrs. Kennerly and her daughter, Miss Gertrude, will spend a week in the East before returning. Miss Kennerly will make her debut next winter.

The Kennerly family sailed from New York on their abroad and met Mr. and Mrs. John Howard Holmes and their daughter, Miss Mary Brooks, in San Francisco. The Holmes family is still traveling in Europe.

Mrs. Theodore Benoit of Hotel Chase has returned from a trip to Battle Creek, Mich.

The St. Louis Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet Friday, May 27, at 2 o'clock, in the Jefferson Memorial.

An interest in pictures through his collection, which had begun collecting shortly before his death. Among his friends were Charles Dana Gibson, the illustrator, and Ashton Knight, the painter.

His collection was valued at more than $100,000 up to 1918, when, disgusted with prohibition, he said he would have to prepare for the drouth, and sold many of his finest pieces, among them several Whistlers.

He died last September when he was stricken with heart disease while bathing in the ocean near his summer home at Biddleford Pool, Me.

The sale is conducted for Mrs. Alice Mudd Cook, his widow.

MISS MILDRED HARRIS, bride-elect of Arthur Kraft, is shown in a portrait.

MISS HARRIS, socially prominent in Memphis, Tenn., and former United States Senator Oliver M. Hitchcock of Omaha, Neb., will be married June 1.

Arthur Kraft Wins Honors and Chorus of 200 Shows Careful Training.

The newly organized Oratorio Society of St. Louis made its debut last night at the American Theater presenting Mendelssohn's "Elijah" and sang with a surprising finish. The chorus, soloists and the orchestra of 30 pieces performed under the direction of William B. Heyne. A large audience was present and the general impression at the conclusion of the evening was that a new force had been introduced into the musical life of St. Louis.

In the circumstances it would be idle and a bit churlish to stress the occasional stoddiness of tempo and more frequent lack of nuance. It goes without saying that the organization still has a lot of work ahead if it hopes to hold up a perfectly responsive and homogeneous singing group.

But judging from the gusto and sincerity exhibited by everyone who participated in last night's performance this happy consummation will only be a matter of time.

The soloists were Robin Pease, baritone, who sang the arduous title part; Arthur Kraft, tenor; Ruth Hazlett-Windover, soprano, and Blanche Herrick Hopkins, contralto. Although Pease sang with complete authority, the major honors of the evening belong to Kraft, the tenor. His voice, though in its singing of the aria "If With All Your Hearts Ye Truly Seek Me."

The chorus of 200 had evidently been submitted to a careful training. If as much progress is made in the rehearsals preceding the next public performance the Oratorio Society should take its place among the best choirs in the country.

A Public Function. "In all this work our governments—national, state, and local—have recognized that the preservation of health and the conservation of life are in part public functions. Health boards have been established, hospitals built and maintained, public nurses employed, and hygiene taught in the schools.

"The Public Health Service of the Federal Government has taken a leading part in combating diseases and in sanitary education. No more striking achievement was ever accomplished than by Dr. Gorgas, of the United States Army, in cleaning up the Panama Canal Zone. Under French control, the death rate in that area was 240 per thousand. In 1913 it had dropped to 8.35 per thousand. Without this work the construction and operation of the canal would have been impossible.

"Universities and colleges, and even secondary schools, have their resident doctors and infirmaries. A few individuals, who can afford such health assurance, retain physicians to look after them the year around. Only recently the movement for prevention, or relief in the early stages, has been extended to mental diseases. Cities are establishing mental clinics, and many educational institutions have departments for studying and alleviating mental distress, which so frequently leads to serious consequences for the student.

"Co-operation and tolerance, which have been developed so widely in industry and social relations, are now found in a marked degree in the medical profession. The work being done by the American Medical Association is a striking illustration of this. In years gone by physicians were apt to be suspicious and intolerant of other schools and of other methods of treatment. There has been a great change. The modern broad-minded physician is willing to use or to recommend whatever methods seem best suited to the case in hand. Furthermore, he is the strongest advocate of prevention. He is who is taking the lead in the development of everything which promises to promote health and to reduce sickness to the minimum, even though its tendencies are to diminish the practice upon which he relies for his income.

"All of these accomplishments are distinctly in the line of conservation through social service. The society of this country has become so well organized, its charities have become so broad and inclusive, that the best body of our population is able to secure adequate medical attention. This is true: a remarkable degree of all our great centers of population, and it is only in remote quarters that such service can not be provided.

"I learned that in Prep School"

The most—and least—a dentifrice can do is

CLEAN

These college girls . . . they have not studied physiology, science, hygiene, without learning the difference between a dentifrice which cleans teeth and a dentist who cures them.

They brush their teeth to get them clean, and go twice a year to the dentist for treatment.

And for twice-a-day cleaning, they don't want a medicine, but a dentifrice designed simply and solely to clean, and to clean better.

Leading dental authorities agree that the one function of a dentifrice is to clean teeth. Realizing this, Colgate & Co. designed Ribbon Dental Cream to do that one thing superlatively well. Colgate's cleans by the following modern method: As you brush, it breaks into a sparkling, bubbling foam; in this foam is calcium carbonate, a finely ground powder which loosens clinging food particles, and polishes all tooth surfaces. Next, this foam, in a detergent, washing wave, sweeps over teeth, tongue, gums, washing all surfaces, removing the very causes of tooth decay.

Colgate's attempts to do no more than clean, because dentists say that a dentifrice should do no more. Rely on your dentist to cure—rely on Colgate's to clean.

vided. Our larger cities support free dispensaries, our hospitals have provision for free service, and of all the professions, with the possible exception of the ministry, our physicians give most unsparringly of their time and their skill, for the alleviation of human suffering.

Blessings Become Common.

"Our governmental agencies, our organized charities, and our private benefactors are all giving generous support to this most important purpose. This is an enormous contribution that has been made to human welfare. It is one of the undeniable evidences of the soundness and success of American institutions. The fact that our attainments and our blessings have become common is no reason why they should be ignored.

"Constructive criticism is always proper and ought to be helpful. Mere fault finding has no value except to reveal the poverty of the intellect which constantly engages in it. Our country, our government, our state of society, are a long way from being perfect, but the fact that our structure is not complete is no reason for refusing to assess at their proper value the usefulness and the beauty of those parts which are nearing completion, or withholding our approval from the general plan of construction and neglecting to join in the common effort to carry on the work.

A Mature Era.

"The human race is by no means young. It has reached a state of maturity. It is the inheritor of a very wide experience. It has located a great many fixed stars in the firmament of truth. No doubt a multitude of others await the revelation of a more extended research. But because we realize that we have not yet located them all is no reason for doubting the existence of those already observed or disregarding the records which reveal their position. To engage in such a course would lead to nothing but disaster.

"One of the difficulties in the world is not that we are lacking in sufficient knowledge, but that we are unwilling to live in accordance with the knowledge which we have. Approval of the Ten Commandments is almost universal. The principles they declare are sanctioned by the common consent of mankind. We do not lack in knowledge of them. We lack in ability to live by them.

"Somewhere in human nature there is still a structural weakness. We do not do as well as we know. We make many constitutions, we enact many laws, laying out a course of action and providing a method of relationship one with another which are theoretically above criticism, but they do not come into full observance and effect. Society is still afflicted with crime, and among the nations there are still wars and rumors of wars.

"In spite of all our progress and all our success, no one doubts that much yet remains to be done. What part the physician will play in the further advancement of the well-being of the world is an interesting speculation. It is a well-known proverb that 'cleanliness is next to godliness.' No one can doubt that if humanity could be brought to a state of physical well-being, many of our social problems would disappear. If we could effectively rid our systems of poison, not only would our bodily vigor be strengthened, but our vision would be clearer, our judgment more accurate, and our moral power increased. We should come to a more perfect appreciation of the truth.

"It is to your profession in its broadest sense, intrusted by the contentions of different schools, that the world may look for large contributions toward its regeneration, physically, mentally and spiritually, when not force but reason will hold universal sway.

ANSWERED:

three vital questions you have asked about used car allowances

1 "What is my present car worth?"

Answer: Your used car has only one fundamental basis of value: that is what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.

2 "Why should dealers in different makes of cars offer me allowances that differ materially?"

Answer: Your used car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.

3 "Is it true that the largest allowance offered means the best deal for me?"

Answer: The largest allowance is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; sometimes it is not. An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.

First judge the merits of the new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your used car. Remember that after all you are making a purchase, not a sale.

SKS ADMEN TO CUT SPACE FOR QUALITY

"Sacrifice and Truth" New Slogan Proposed to Club by Speaker.

A barrage of wise cracks covered a shot directly atwart the accepted course of modern advertising in the address of James Schermerhorn, founder of the Detroit Times, at yesterday's luncheon of the Advertising Club at Hotel Statler.

Schermerhorn was author of the slogan, "Truth in Advertising," a rebuke to advertisers since 1911. He urged that to "truth" be added "sacrifice." The quality of space "for the quality of what we put in it," and "in justice to the fair name of our country, to the smaller advertisers overhauled by the larger ones, and to the readers themselves."

"Advertising may have become too self-satisfied in achieving honesty. It may be, actually, the great American brag, the world's chief show-off. It runs to blattancy and bulkiness. It dominates the newspapers and the highways. It has two stories about the cross-continent tourist who said, 'I wouldn't have seen any of the country at all, if I hadn't skidded through the billboards.'"

"The pumpkin is more prodigious than the peach, but it is not more succulent. Some of the finest things in the world come in minute parcels. Some of the greatest forces are invisible. Let us not be beguiled by space."

"Virtue is its own reward," was his diagnosis of crime news, "but vice has nine lives—perpetration, evasion, illustration, exaggeration, syndication, adaptation, adjustment, reprobation and imitation."

St. Louis has an inspiring history," he said. "One is disposed to look for inscribed tablets marking the spots where all its dignifying events have occurred, and one is disturbed not to

HIGH PRICED STOCKS SHOW WIDE RANGES

Speculation for Rise Encouraged by Return of Comfortable Credit Conditions—Laclede Gas a Feature as Control Change Announced.

STOCK MARKET AVERAGES.
NEW YORK, May 18.—Following are the Associated Press stock averages:

By Leased Wire from the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, May 18.—The Evening Post in its copyrighted financial review today says:

"A wave of buying that spread over many of the high priced industrial railroad and specialty stocks and resulted in several advances featured today's active session of the stock market. Speculation for the rise was encouraged by a return of comfortable credit conditions. Money was freely offered for demand loans at 4 per cent and the stock exchange rate soon dropped to 4. Activity quickened in investment securities, government bonds being in better demand along with rail securities and some utilities foreign bonds were quieter."

Laclede Gas Above 141.

"Speculation for the rise in high-priced industrial and specialty stocks featured excited trading at times and resulted in several wide movements to new high records. Baldwin was one of the first to attract attention with a sharp upturn that continued until the shares crossed 214 to a new top in heavy transactions, case Freshing Machine then took the spotlight in a jump that extended more than 13 points and sent the stock above 200 for the first time. Pittsburgh and West Virginia was one of the features of the railroad group and an advance of more than 14 points to a new peak above 140. Laclede Gas continued its sensational rise in establishing a new high record above 241. Announcement of the parent Laclede Gas & Electric to Utilities Power & Light. The pivotal industrial and rails were not entirely neglected, however, and strength spread to General Motors again demanding attention with a jump to a new top. Hudson Motors and Mack Truck displayed strength, but the new advances encountered profit taking."

Some Late Selling.

"Realizing spread all through the list in the final hour, as a result of the steady advance and many stocks which scored sharp upturns closed below the best levels of the day. Strength in Baldwin spread to other equipment manufacturing concerns such as Westinghouse Air Brake, American Car and Foundry and American Locomotive while buying of motor shares found response in some of the lower priced issues. Several railroad stocks continued to advance including Nickel Plate, Reading, Union Pacific and others, the last named selling at the level in two decades. At the same time several weak spots were found by speculators for the decline. Glidden shares broke badly when the dividend was omitted, while Southern Railway stocks were under new lows for the year and U. S. Rubber was depressed below 50 to a new bottom. I. R. T. shares continued under pressure."

Sterling Trade Heavy.

Heavy trading in sterling featured trading in the foreign exchange market, rates on London advanced fractionally as result of a large turnover. Japanese exchange sold sharply lower, while Chinese rates drifted to lower levels and Argentine exchange was heavy. Live and Scandinavian rates also dipped."

Commodities Advance.

"Heavy buying of grain futures and another spurt in cotton featured trading in the principal commodity markets. July wheat and corn contracts sold at the highest levels of the season before realizing sales brought about a recession from the best. Cotton scored an advance of almost $1 a bale in nearby deliveries."

Goodyear Settlement Approved.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Directors of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. approved the recent amicable settlement of all litigation of the company with a meeting of stockholders to be held in Akron shortly to elect a new board of directors and to dissolve the company into a new corporation.

Extra Ingersoll-Rand Dividend.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Ingersoll-Rand Co. directors declared an extra dividend of $1 a share on the common stock and the regular semi-annual dividend of $2 a share on the preferred stock.

Reichbank Sells Gold.

BERLIN, May 18.—The Reichsbank has sold 250,000 marks of gold to the Reichsbank in London, the first time since the stabilization of the mark that the Reichsbank has sold gold to the Reichsbank in London.

The lines are dark and run vertically across the frame, with some lighter areas in between, suggesting a textured surface or a specific lighting effect during the scanning process. There is no legible text or other graphical elements present.This image shows a high-contrast, black and white photograph of a textured surface, likely the binding of a book. The image is dominated by a series of vertical, parallel lines that create a strong sense of depth and texture. The lines vary in thickness and shading, with some appearing as dark, solid bands and others as lighter, more textured areas. The overall effect is one of a dense, layered structure, possibly representing the spine or cover of an old, worn book. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the ridges and casting deep shadows in the grooves between the lines.

A black and white photograph of a book's endpaper. The endpaper features a decorative border with a repeating geometric pattern. Below the border, there is a small circular logo containing a stylized 'A' and the text 'SERVICE CLUB' and 'THE UNIVERSITY OF'.

VERY NIFTY—IN EMPRESS
CATHERINE'S DAY

THE WOMAN OF IT

By Marguerite Moores
Marshall

HOW SHE CAN TELL

THE latest scandal, at Barnard and at Columbia, is what the professor said. About how a girl can find out whether a young man is in love with her.

According to Columbia's undergraduate newspaper, the Spectator.

The professor offered, to his class of young women.

These three tests of the boy friend's tender passion:

First, play cards with him.

Second, play cards with him.

Third, note what he laughed at.

Professor—in the words of Harry Leon Wilson—how could you? No wonder you hide behind the veil of anonymity!

Your alleged methods of detecting romantic devotion.

Won't even get discussed, in this column.

For, frankly, they're not only vulgar—they're silly.

Nevertheless, we do believe that there are at least three ways in which any girl can tell whether a young man really cares—

A piece of knowledge naturally of great interest to her.

The first sure sign that he is getting serious.

Is a sudden burst of autobiography.

Oh, of course, every young man—as well as every middle-aged or elderly man—

Talks about himself to the girls. He wouldn't be normally egotistical if he did not.

Any girl who will listen is bound to hear about his present activities in business, sports and social life.

But when he starts discoursing on his past performances.

And especially, when he opens the floodgates of his future plans and ambitions—

Then the young lady should sit up and take notice.

Even as Desdemona, when Othello told her his tall tales.

It's really a wise provision of Nature.

Which sets a young man talking, to the girl of his choice.

About all the things he's done.

And all the things he wants to do.

She thus gets a foretaste of what may be her lifelong role of appreciative audience—

If she's too darned bored, she can quit then and there!

Second, the young man who is developing fondness for a young woman.

Shows signs of wanting to be a father to her.

He gets awfully fussy about her health and her looks.

He wants to know what she eats for lunch.

And protests if she doesn't wear clothing which he considers warm enough.

And inquires, anxiously, if she isn't smoking too much.

And wonders, audibly, if she wouldn't look better with her hair shorter—or longer—

Let no young woman wax too indignant with such interference.

It's a clear indication that she is being taken seriously.

And that she may be taken matrimonially, if so inclined.

Finally, a girl may be pretty certain.

That he is tottering on the verge of a proposal.

When he gets a sudden and unexpected attack of shyness.

As long as he thinks he's safe, he should worry.

About the intoxicating influence of petting parties.

When he feels about a girl, that he can take her society, or leave it alone.

He's likely to be around most of the time.

Why not? He enjoys himself.

And, as they say, "there's no danger of anything serious."

It's when he begins to feel that he can't be happy without a certain young woman.

That his first reaction is plain panic.

Marriage is not a matter to which he's been giving immediate consideration.

He doesn't think he can afford it.

He doesn't want to settle down.

He isn't "sold" on marriage one little bit.

Yet enter THE girl—"who'er she."

"That not impossible she."

"That shall command my heart and me!"

And it's all over but the wedding bells.

Though, like a colt being haltered, he throw up his head and shy off, just as first.

He'll come running back, the dear old life-force being what it is.

So, then, the girl.

Having confirmed, by these "laboratory tests."

What her intuition has already told her—

That he's just plain smitten on her charming young self.

The girl may now concentrate on the problem that really matters: Whether she cares about him—How she can tell!

Yale School Hears Free Prayer Urged.—Headlines.

Those who judge from Bill-paying parental experience are convinced that nothing except prayer could possibly be on the free list of any college today.

Court costs of $1000 a word were assessed the other day on a young wife who called her aged husband "old fool." Yet other rude recalcitrants would tell any court it was worth it!

What the Ultra-Fashionables Of New York Are Wearing Now

By BELLE BRUMMELL.

WILDFLOWER designs are much liked for printed frocks and buttercups, daisies, cowslips or violets saunter casually across many a Paris-made frock.

The simplicity of the design often quite in contrast to the sophisticated lines of the frock. Daisies against a French blue background are used in a frock worn by Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney.

With it she wears a coat of navy crepe, and a hat of navy felt, a Rebox model, the crown coming down in scallops on a grooving band.

The "Bouvier twins," a title by which they will always be called regardless of the fact that one of them is married, strolled down Fifth avenue Tuesday, quite regardless of the come-and-go show-ers. The brown chosen as their theatrical-colored hair. Brown and color scheme blended well with tan embroidered coats with novelty brown wool collars, brown felt hats and brown shoes were the items we noticed, twins always attracting attention, especially when they dress so smartly.

Mrs. I. Townsend Burden comes times costumed in pastel silk crepes for morning wear. She is also often seen in navy and white. She affects the jumper with a rounded neck in all instances and wears with it the short, straight pleated skirt. For her constitutional she dons a top coat of woolen fabric to match the color of her frock, and wears a felt hat of the same tones, pulled well down over her eyes.

Margaret Dittmar dines at the Ritz, her brunette coloring strikingly set off by her frock of gold. Long sleeves come down on her hands, and her slippers were also of gold. We have seen one or two lovely gold dresses this winter, and haven't been able to decide whether this type of frock is more becoming to a brunette, as a foil for her coloring, or to the pure blonde with whose coloring it harmonizes.

The Vogue for covers cloth was doubly vouched for as Mrs. George W. Moore and Mrs. Frederic Alexander were seen walking together down Park avenue. They both had on suits of that material in a black and white mixed effect. Their accessories were also similar, black hats, black shoes and silver fox scarfs.

Standing near the desk at the sale of Rita Lydie's furniture at the Anderson Galleries is Mrs. Benjamin Kaufman, settling her bill. More slender than ever, this year, the lovely Mrs. Kaufman is also clad in beige. Her dress is closely wrapped turban of flexible straw is a grayish beige and beaded with a wrap of gauze and fox we glimpse a two-piece frock of beige crepe. Her shoes of beige reptile skin are worn with rose beige stockings. Lady Mendel reared well up in front is in black, and Mrs. Bernard Baruch wraps herself in a cloak of black kasha as she leaves.

At the last of the big teas given this season by Adolph Lewisohn, the social, artistic and political worlds were all represented. Prophecies of summer modes were seen in chiffon dresses and large sheer hats, although with the crowd present, even in the immense ball room, we were more conscious of the hats than of the gowns.

Mrs. Harrington Mann's large sheer hat of sapphire blue with a black bow on the side was effective from its color and simplicity. Fresh-colored chiffon at the neck of her black frock reminded us that this combination of colors is even smarter this year than last.

Beige in all shades still seems to lead in color smartness. Rosy beige, yellow beige, twine and straw are all seen. Julie Crawford is very alluring in a two-piece costume of fine French lace and beige chiffon. The blouse of lace is trimmed with brown velvet and the skirt of pleated chiffon edged by gold and velvet. The turned down brim of her beige crocheted straw hat is very supple and ripples to frame her face.

At the Smith-Taylor wedding at St. Thomas Church, among the exquisite frocks seen, beige for a color choice was noticeably a favorite. Two particularly lovely frocks of this color were seen, but each quite different in their effect. Mrs. Kenneth O'Brien wore a diaphanous frock of pale beige chiffon with a novel cape effect at the back and her little hat of the same color was small. Mrs. Henry Taylor wore beige lace and a large picture hat to match.

Are people dressing more in the afternoon? Yes, for dancing and tea. But the silhouette of the dress does not change, only the material. Dancing in the Drake Grill last week at the tea party the debs gave the naval officers, who were that the superlatively smart were clad in chiffon frocks cut along sports lines and that all wore the inimitable small felt hats. Not far from us, stood the attractive Mrs. Dodge, wife of the Admiral, all in black. Collar, cuffs and front of delicate creamy lace struck an unusual note in this charming frock.

A modernistic design of brilliant colored silks is applied on the long swaying skirt of the white tulle robe de style worn by Virginia Vanderbilt as she dines and dances at the Park Lane. Her slippers are silver and her stockings nude, the only color contrast being the tulle. She wears a black and white striped scarf.

Chatting with a friend as they lunched on Tuesday at one of the Fifth Avenue tea rooms, which are a joy to the shopping world, Margaret Spencer wore a costume whose tailored perfection, whether for shopping or "to go somewhere," was noticeable. With a perfectly fitting black suit, just a glimpse of the Vionnet neckline of her white blouse showed, she wore a metal hose with black exfolia. A color contrast came in her small hat of Paris blue which accentuated a downward tilt by a large pin of lapis-lazuli. On the table lay her white doekin gloves.

The Diary of a New Father

Tuesday Midnight.

It is terrible how your wife will take advantage of you when you cannot defend yourself by choking her or something of account of these being witnesses, and when the Stewarts, who live across the hall, came over to see us this evening I thought here's more bad luck breathing in, darn it, but I did not know how bad my luck really was on account of it had not happened yet.

Mr. Stewart said, "Well, how is the baby?" and when he has said what kind of weather he thinks you are having, and how are you, and how is the baby, he is through for the evening, but you do not mind on account of being tired of listening to him already.

Joan said he is just fine, thanks, and Mr. Stewart had a brand-new idea, and he said, "What are you going to make out of him when he grows up?" and Joan said, "Isn't it funny that you should ask? Bob and I have just been discussing that." Mrs. Stewart said, "If we had a boy I think I would want him to be a musician." Joan said, "That is just what I have been saying, then," and I said, "Oh, well, it's the same thing, isn't it? Pardon me for interrupting."

Mr. Stewart said, "What do you want him to be, Bob?" and I said,

"I want him"—and Joan said, "Oh, Bob hasn't had any important ideas on the subject."

Mrs. Stewart said, "I think it would be simply wonderful if he should become a musician. What have you against it, Bob?" and I said, "What is the use of me having anything against it? If his mother lets his hair stay curly and grow long, I guess the poor little guy will have to be a musician."

Joan said, "That's a silly idea. Don't you know how Rachmaninoff cut his hair?" And Casals is bald," and I said, "Yes, but he is other hand look at the mop of hair on that organist over at the movie theater."

Joan said to Mrs. Stewart, "We are going to get a piano." Mrs. Stewart said, "Oh, won't that be fine?" and I said, "What's that?" but Joan did not pay any attention to me, which is nothing unusual, and she said, "Bob wants me to have a piano for myself again, and then the baby can use it, too, when he's old enough," and Mrs. Stewart said, "You certainly have a generous husband, Joan," and Joan said, "Haven't I, though?" and I guess a man is generous if he gives a stick-up guy his wallet, and the piano is the bad luck I was talking about, and I did not have to help decide we were going to get it, all I have to do is pay for it, and if Joan goes through with this, it is going to be a good joke on the darn fool who gives us credit for a piano, but I do not think I will get many laughs out of it on account of it not being a very funny joke.

Milton Work's Bridge Pointers

THE pointer for today is: An Informative double asks partner to answer with a four-card major no matter how weak; do not double unless prepared for that kind of answer.

Yesterday's hand was held by West who had to decide what to do after a declaration by South.

Spades: 8-3.

Hearts: A-K-10-2.

Diamonds: A-J-4.

Clubs: 3-10-7-6.

My answer slip reads:

No. 5. South pass; West should bid one Heart or one No Trump.

No. 6. South one No Trump; West should pass.

No. 7. South one Spade; West should double.

No. 8. South one Club; West should bid one Heart.

My reasons in support of these declarations are:

No. 5. When choosing between a strong four-card major and a No Trump with three suits stopped, the selection is an optional one. In this case it is a reasonably close choice. My preference would be the Heart because it contains three honors and the defenseless suit is composed of but two cards, but I give both bids as correct.

No. 6. Too weak to bid two Hearts over a No Trump on the right, and furthermore that bid might steer the adversaries into Spades, at which they might be very dangerous than at No Trump.

The hand has the strength for a double, but East is apt to answer with two Spades, which would not fit. West's best way out of the difficulty is to pass. An adverse game at No Trump is fully justified by West's strength and by his desire for a Heart take-out if East have four Hearts.

No. 7. The double is fully justified by West's strength and by his desire for a Heart take-out if East have four Hearts.

No. 8. The adverse suit being stopped only once, the Heart is safer than the No Trump, and a bid is preferable to a double because of the danger of a take-out by East of the four small Spades.

Today's West hand follows:

Spades: A-K-10-7.

Hearts: A-Q-10-8-3.

Diamonds: 9-7-2.

Clubs: 5.

Score before all: what should West declare after South's declarations, asked in the answer slip that follows?

Bridge Answer Slip of May 13:

No. 9. South pass; West should

No. 10. South one No Trump; West should

No. 11. South one Diamond; West should

No. 12. South one Club; West should Takes Dictation by Hand.

HOUSTON, Tex.—A blind stenographer for a Houston real estate operator "sees" her dictation with her hands. Miss Winnie Nelson has a metal device eight inches long, pierced with tiny holes underneath which she places her paper. As her employer talks, she punches indentations on the paper through the holes with a stylus, a small awl-like instrument. After the dictation she runs her fingers over the indentations and transcribes the notes on a typewriter.

Converted Into a Kitchen

HERE one must make a kitchen from a room not exactly intended for that purpose. The problem is a difficult one. It has to be done again and again in these days of expanded rents and contracted space. Often this happens in the moderately priced apartment, and often in the summer cottage, where one is not inclined to go to a great deal of expense.

The sketch shows a room that has been transformed into a kitchen at a minimum cost. A sink has been installed where a wash basin existed before, and has been boarded in to make shelf room for pots and pans. Hot and cold water is drawn from the same faucet, though this is a minor detail, as two faucets may be used as well. Shelves have been built out on the wall to accommodate dishes, and an inexpensive chest of double drawers serves as a kitchen cabinet. To conserve space, a work bench takes the place of a kitchen table, thus releasing the table in the center for a breakfast "nook," or, as in this case where the dining room was missing, for all meals. A unique feature is the window shelf for fruits and vegetables.

As this kitchen, kitchenette or

A New Green— Lovely to Be Seen

By Gladys H. Bevans

IF in the spring your housewife's fancy lightly turns toward the thought of a new color scheme for your walls, or if you are a little bit afraid of it, if you have for a long time lived with creams and grays of wall and woodwork, gather up your courage and make your color scheme. Particularly if you are going to do the work yourself—which involves small expense—or if you are going to have the painters freshen the walls by giving them a coat of water color paint, which also involves small expense, you can afford to take a chance.

A very interesting tone to use in a south room, or in a room where you intend to introduce plenty of warm color in your draperies, is green. By this I mean not the usual and to-be-avoided green, but a green which is something quite different in green. Try this time a green which we will designate by the common name of garden name of pea-green. It is quite pale if the bedroom is very small, but deeper if the size of the room can stand it. Be sure the woodwork is not too deep a green—in fact, it would be better to have it nearer real white than to have it too deep.

With this rather warm yellowed green, flowery chintzes or cretonnes are lovely. If it is suddenly broken up by plenty of flowers and leaves, a black background is very effective. The deep pinks and reds and some of the mauves are lovely in the design or introduced separately in hangings or in larger expanses of plain color. Before making your selection be sure to go over some of the copies of English chintzes that look as if some one had just picked a great bunch of garden flowers, peonies among them, and suddenly transmuted them into their fresh color faded into blocks for printing fabrics for our delight.

IN the spring your housewife's fancy lightly turns toward—not toward thoughts of but thoughts of color, try something new on your walls even if you are a little bit afraid of it. You have for a long time lived in drab and grays on your walls and woodwork, rather on courage and change your scheme. Particularly if you are going to do the work yourself, which involves small expense, if you are going to have the painters freshen the walls with a coat of water color paint, which also involves small expense, can afford to take a chance.

Very interesting tone to use south room, or in a north room if you intend to introduce a lot of warm color in your scheme. By this is not at all the usual and to-be-expected lovely grayed blue-green, but something quite different in green, this time a green which we designate by the common or garden name of pea-green. Have the painter if the bedroom is very dull, but deeper if the size of the room can stand it. Be sure the work is not too deep a cream color, in fact, it would be better to have it nearer real white than to have it too deep.

With this rather warm yellow-green, flowery chintzes or damasks are lovely. If it is sufficiently broken up by plenty of pinks and leaves, a black background is very effective. The deep reds and reds and some of the blues are lovely in the design introduced separately in blinds or in larger expanses of plain color. Before making your selection be sure to go over some of the copies of English chintzes that look as if some one had just picked the best bunch of garden flowers, and in larger expanses of plain color. FIVE INCHES OF RAIN IN THREE HOURS
AT PEORIA

Mayor's Son Drowned, Four Others Thought to Have Perished; Many Missing
$1,500,000 Damage.

CITY IS ISOLATED
BY THE DOWNPOUR

Trains Stop Running, Wires Down—Levee Breaks, Flooding East Peoria
With Four Feet of Water.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
PEORIA, Ill., May 12.—Walter
Mueller, 29-year-old son of Mayor Louis Mueller, was drowned and four other persons are thought to have lost their lives, and property damage estimated at $1,500,000
was caused by a 5.5-inch rainfall which flooded this city and suburbs in three hours yesterday afternoon.

Peoria virtually was isolated until today. No trains were entering or leaving the city, highways were under water and telephone wires were down.

The heaviest rain poured down at 1:30 p. m. Within three hours the precipitation had reached 5.5 inches, a record here.

In some residential districts where sewers failed to carry the water away, houses were engulfed
and occupants clung to the roofs.
In the business districts, store basements held two and three feet of water.

Twenty or more persons were unaccounted for today and police were busy checking the list of the missing. Three hundred and fifty persons are homeless.

East Peoria Dike Gives Way.
East Peoria, across the Illinois River from Peoria, was hit even harder. A dike, weakened by the recent high waters, collapsed under the heavy rainfall, and four feet of water swept through East Peoria's business section.

Walter Mueller, 29-year-old son of the Mayor of Peoria, was employed as superintendent of a coal company on the outskirts of the city. He and Lester Jones, another employee, were leaving the little office building when the first rain poured down, forcing them back into the building. They left again and were washed away by La Marsh Creek, overflowing its banks near where it empties into the Illinois River.

Mueller's body was recovered today. When last seen alive he was clinging to the roof of a building.
Jones held on to railroad tracks,
on higher ground, and was rescued eventually. He is seriously ill from exposure.

Hundreds of persons were driven from their homes in the lowlands.
The Illinois River, which was receding before the storm and stood at 13.4 feet, had risen a foot and today stood at 14.5 feet.

Hail as Big as Hen's Eggs.

Hail as large as hen's eggs fell during the storm, causing enormous damage to greenhouses and windows. Tops of automobiles were ripped.

At Pekin, 10 miles south of here, more than $50,000 damage was done by wind.

Bus lines were washed out on three hard roads. Water covers the Peoria-Canton and the Peoria-Pekin hard roads.

Severe Storms General in Illinois and Indiana.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 13.—A series of severe spring storms lashed through Indiana and Illinois late yesterday. Peoria, Ill., and Indianapolis, Ind., were hardest hit. The rain was accompanied by a heavy fall of hail which broke thousands of windows.

Lightning struck the Hartshorn Ill. Community High School stunning four teachers and 50 pupils, and another bolt hit the dome of the Hancock County Court House at Carthage, Ill., doing considerable damage.

Several hangars were demolished at Chanute Flying Field, Kansas, Ill.; small buildings were blown down and the main mess hall was damaged.

The storm in Illinois and Indiana followed one the previous night in Iowa. The forecast for today and tomorrow was for more rain.

Flyer Killed in Plane He Built.

MOLINE, Ill., May 12.—Floyd McCluer, Moline aviator, was killed near Moline airport this morning when a plane which he was flying and which he had built himself, crashed to the ground.
